LIBERTY LOBBY

b7c

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available on September 11, 1957, a copy of the September issue of "Right," which is edited by BRADFORD MARTIN, P. O. Box 180, San Francisco, California, and which describes itself as a monthly newsletter of, by and for the American Rightwing.

This issue carries a special article captioned, "A Liberty Lobby is Needed," by WILLIS A. CARTO, P. O. Box 5311, San Francisco, California. The actual article is prefaced with background data on CARTO, which described him, among other things, as Corresponding Secretary for the Liberty Lobby, a new concept which is attracting attention of patriots from coast to coast. It is scheduled to open in Washington July 4, 1958, or before if its budget is met earlier.

CARTO's guest article is quoted as follows:

"Washington, D. C. is an occupied city. It has been captured by an aggressive coalition of minority special interest pressure groups. The federal government is the obedient servant of its captors, which band together as the occasion demands to manipulate government force in order to pry from the majority of Americans special privilege and power.

"There are economic, religious, racial and foreign pressure groups set up in Washington, all of them extremely well-organized and well financed. Although not all of these minority special interest pressure groups are consistently inimical to American interests, in principle the system is bad. The entire system needs to be thrown out and a truly libertarian system re-established which will be in the interest of all the people, not just some.

"The Augean Stables need to be cleaned. A Second American Revolution is needed. But this presents many problems, the main one being simply that our side is not yet nearly strong enough nor well-organized enough.

"In the meantime, how can we cope with these grasping pressure groups? We must compete with them. We must compete with them on their own terms until such time as the entire pressure group system can be eliminated and government re-established in consistency with American traditions.

"Such a strategy requires the establishment of a beach-head on the battleground of Washington; an actual office must be set up, ready, willing and able to lock horns with the minority special interest pressure groups. Such an office must be backed up by thousands of voters. It will contact legislators on matters deemed vital to America by speaking for the citizen's whole and long-range interest, rather than his limited and shortsighted temporary interest. It will be a lobby for liberty and national sovereignty: a LIBERTY LOBBY!

"At present there are a few offices and individuals in Washington which do good work insofar as their limited activities allow. But a much larger and truly coordinated effort is needed, one which will utilize the cooperative effort of all of our big patriotic groups. With the backing of the membership of the biggest dozen or so groups a LIBERTY LOBBY will be in a position to speak out firmly for the right.

"A LIBERTY LOBBY will complement and supplement the grass-roots work of the various new party groups and political action groups. Far from there being any conflict between the two types of operations, the LOBBY will work at the 'top'--right at the seat of federal power -- while the grass-roots groups will continue their essential work at the 'bottom' -- at the precinct and district level. Each type of operation will benefit the other. And together they will be far stronger than alone.

"A LIBERTY LOBBY will also bring Northern and Southern groups together for political action. This will pave the way for the long-overdue formal coalition of conservative forces which is so desperately needed.

"United, the patriotic forces in America can outstrip even the most aggressive and vocal of the minority special interest pressure groups. This is because every patriot-member of the LIBERTY LOBBY will be an active and outspoken member. Such is by no means the case with the much-feared labor lobby, or teachers' lobby, or the racial lobbies. Most individual members of these lobbies are themselves too good Americans to want special favors and hand-outs at government expense. In spite of their bombast, the minority special interest pressure group bosses do not speak for all of their members.

"Now is the time for Americans to organize together in order to accomplish what we cannot accomplish alone. Now is the time for a LIBERTY LOBBY!"

The Articles of Incorporation filed by Liberty and Property, Inc. with the California Secretary of State, Sacramento, California, were examined on July 20, 1956. These articles, under #289632, asserted that the name of the corporation shall be Liberty and Property, Inc., whose stated purposes include the following:

"The initial business to be transacted by the corporation is formation of groups and committees for the purpose of exploring public grievances, and for the purpose of general public education on political, economic and social subjects.

"To do research in, and prepare model constitutional amendments and legislative enactments designed to inform the various citizens and members of a means of proper action for the preservation or restoration of personal liberties and property rights.

"To formulate, develop, and promote public interest and education in basic democratic principles, civil rights, and property rights through dissemination of information by all types of printed publications, radio, television and other means of dissemination of information....."

Other stated purposes generally state that it was provided for the corporation to receive, hold, and develop by prescribed means real and personal property for benefit of the corporation, to borrow money and incur indebtedness and to enter into contracts to further its objects.

✓ These articles show that tax exemption as a civic league was granted to Liberty and Property.

The original Articles of Incorporation filed by Liberty and Property July 30, 1954 lists the following as officers:

On January 30, 1956, according to Articles of Incorporation, Liberty and Property entered a change regarding its officers, which listed [redacted] [redacted] The address was shown as P.O. Box 180, San Francisco, California, and 1615 Pelk Street, Room 6, San Francisco.

On November 1, 1955, [redacted] furnished Progress Report #5 on the letterhead of Liberty and Property, P.O. Box 180, San Francisco. This report is dated October 14, 1955 and is addressed "To All Enrollees and Good Friends of Liberty and Property." This report in part stated as follows:

"It is necessary to create a means whereby all new developments and new--as well as tried and true ideas can be expressed. L&P, being outspokenly pro-Capitalistic, believes that through the honest competition of ideas just as through the honest competition of goods the best of the lot will eventually prevail, and so result in the general welfare.

"Consequently, we are proud to announce that this marks the beginning of publication of 'Right', a new monthly bulletin, of, by, and for the American Patriotic Movement.....

SF 105-4222
ZJ/af

"In order to be effective, 'Right' intends to report, without bias or favoritism, all significant activity of the American Right Wing. As we define it, this means any organization or group which is interested primarily in one or two basic essentials qualifies for such matter. Because of the vast scope of the ideals envisioned by the groups concerned, these two criteria are necessarily negative. The two negative criteria are Anti-Marxism and Anti-Internationalism. Taken together, these two principles come close to meaning Americanism in our book."

✓ This report identified the publication office of "Right" as 418 Ellis Street, San Francisco, and the Editor as CHARLES W. THOMAS.

This same report, under a caption "Growth of L&P", states as follows:

"In the few short months of the existence of L&P, an amazing amount of progress has been made. Step by step, our Organization Plan is being completed. New services were added constantly, all designed to build and strengthen the 'American Underground'."

On November 7, 1955, [redacted] a businessman, furnished the San Francisco Office with a leaflet which states it was issued by Liberty and Property, P.O. Box 180, San Francisco. This leaflet advertizes "The Second Edition of the New Enlarged First National Directory of 'Rightest' Groups, Publications and Some Individuals in the United States (and Some Foreign Countries)." This was identified as a special service of Liberty and Property and listed the following as a partial group of attractions:

Anti-Internationalist groups!
Libertarian groups!
Anti-Communist and Anti-Socialist groups!
States' Rights groups!
Right to Work groups!
Anti-Fluoridation groups!
Religious groups!

On November 14, 1955, [redacted] furnished a copy of a mimeograph letter written by [redacted] which stated that he had made a trip throughout the United States and contacted numerous Rightist Nationalist organizations and individuals. This letter also stated that [redacted] was contacting groups which were against communism, against communist infiltrated state governments, the Supreme Court decision on segregation. This letter further states that he had also contacted groups called the Citizens Councils of the Southern States, which are against desegregation. The letter stated that the purpose of his trip was to contact people concerning Liberty and Property with the end of gaining some important support for it. The letter indicated he had been successful in getting this support.

The February, 1956 issue of "Right", listing G. W. THOMAS as Editor, was set up in the form of an open letter to President EISENHOWER and directed numerous questions to the President. The following were included among these questions:

"Is it true that you and you alone are responsible for the surrender of Berlin to the Russians?"

"Did you cut off General Patton's gasoline so that he was unable to take the Balkans, as he was in the process of doing?"

b6

SF 105-4222

"Did you and Harry Dexter White, who was then known to be a communist spy, hatch the Morgenthau Plan in your London headquarters?"

"Were you responsible for turning over to the Russians some 70,000 highly-trained German scientists while we received only a few hundred? Are these men responsible for building Russia to a point of aerial and atomic superiority to us?"

"Mr. President, are you responsible for the murder of some two to five million anti-Communist Russians, Poles, Balts, and Balkanese?"

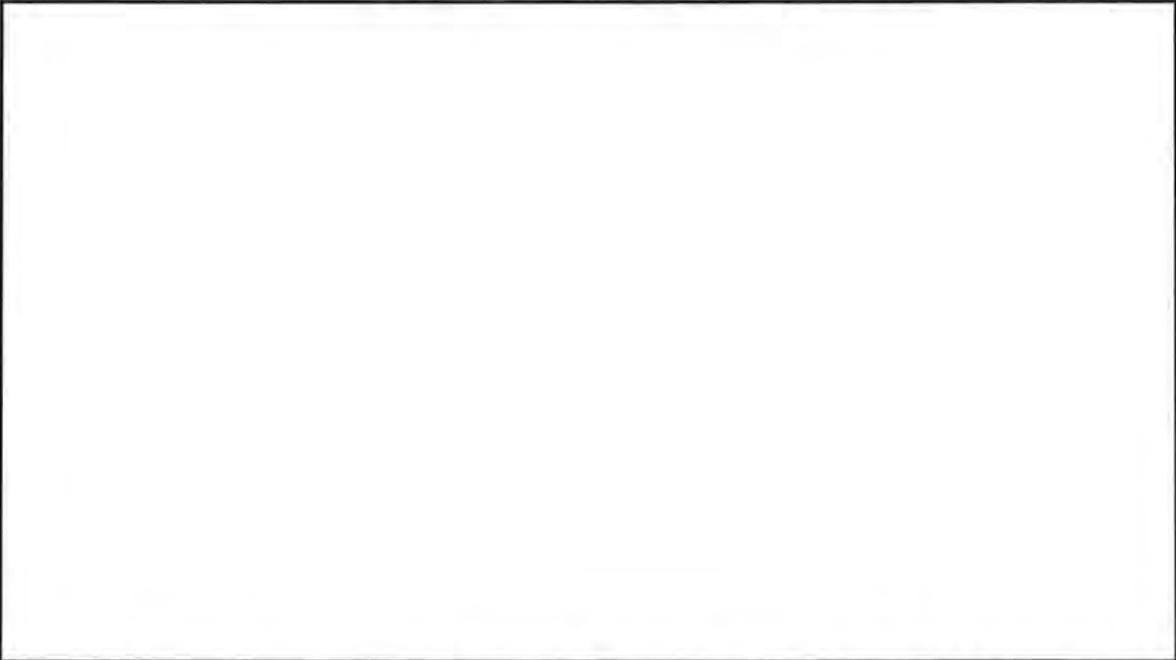

On June 29, 1956, [redacted] furnished a communication on the letterhead of Liberty and Property, P.O. Box 180, San Francisco, dated June 15, 1956, which was generally circulated to the enrollees of Liberty and Property, which contained in part the following descriptive information:

"Liberty and Property, Incorporated, is lots of things, primarily it is another one of the dozens of Right Wing political action groups. Consequently, we officially favor only our 10 proposed amendments to the Federal Constitution, called the Second Bill of Rights..... The point is that 'Right' is certainly not the official L&P publication at all. 'Right' stands staunchly on its own legs under the able leadership of its editor, Bradford Martin. Moreover, our National Committee advisors are even further removed from 'Right' because each one of these leaders is concerned only with their own particular amendment, which is one of the 10 in the Second Bill of Rights. So you can see although L&P publishes 'Right' as a service to the American Right Wing, it is not in any way an official publication but speaks only for itself."

On October 1, 1956, [ ] furnished literature dated September 25, 1956 stating that the mailing address of "Right" was changed from 418 Ellis Street, San Francisco to P.O. Box 180, San Francisco.

On April 20, 1959, [ ] furnished a leaflet received by [ ] in August, 1956, which stated in part as follows:

SF 105-4222
ZJ/af

"San Francisco Conservative Republican Headquarters, 1263 Market Street, San Francisco, California. Phone: Prospect 6-2896. Welcome! Greetings to you from your hosts." The leaflet then listed various individuals and their assignments and included [redacted]
[redacted]

The leaflet also reflected that "The San Francisco Conservative Republican Headquarters is a temporary service organism established for conservative Republicans to make their voices heard at the 1956 Republican National convention. It is sponsored by the officers, directors and friends of Liberty and Property, Inc., many of whom are listed above."

The leaflet further states that all mail should be sent to P.O. Box 180, San Francisco, until August 17, when the headquarters would open.

On August 10, 1956, [redacted] furnished an announcement captioned "San Francisco Conservative Republican Headquarters, P.O. Box 180, San Francisco." This announcement, which is dated August 3, 1956, stated that Conservative Republican Headquarters would be opened August 17, 1956 at 1263 Market Street and closed one week later on August 23, 1956. The announcement further stated that this downtown location would enable "us" to put on the kind of performance fitting for a movement which encompasses millions of patriots from coast to coast. It also stated that "we" would be able to put on a "show" in direct competition with other Market Street political headquarters "all of which are, of course, liberal."

The August 10, 1956 edition of the "San Francisco Chronicle", a San Francisco daily newspaper, page 6, contains an article entitled "Rightist Republicans to Open Headquarters at Convention Here." The article states that [redacted] of Liberty and Property, Inc., "a group which appears to be composed of ultra right-wing Republicans" made this announcement.

b7D

This article states that [ ] said he was not for EISENHOWER for President and that while his group had taken "no stand" on the nomination, Senators JENNER and MC CARTHY or Governor LEE of Utah are men who fit the program of his organization.

The August 24, 1956 edition of the "San Francisco Chronicle" published an article entitled "Governor LEE vs. The Income Tax." This article described "Conservative Republican Headquarters" as a vacant store at 1263 Market Street rented during the convention to serve as "a focal point for strategy in opposition to the schemes of the liberals" and "a nerve center for fast, organized action in case the unexpected happens." The article stated that among those present at a press conference was [ ] of an organization known as 'Liberty and Property' (which is footing the bill for the headquarters) who feels the U.S. should 'immediately withdraw from the impotent and subversive United Nations'.

The September 7, 1956 issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle" printed a letter to the editor from [ ] Liberty and Property, San Francisco. [ ] stated that the "Chronicle" had misquoted him in printing that [ ] stated the United Nations was "impotent and subversive" [ ] stated that what he really said was that the United Nations was "impotent but subversive. Impotent for the purpose we created it, ie, to stop war, but subversive because of the haven it is for spies and because of its anti-national propaganda and activities which are designated to throw the American people unknowingly into a world government."

On [ ] advised that on that day he spoke with [ ] at the Conservative Republican Headquarters on Market Street in San Francisco. At this time, [ ] said that he was not against labor as labor but was against the abuses perpetrated by the officials of labor unions and the injustices that they practice on the rank and file of the union, the general public and the employers. According to [ ] was against foreign aid. He said that most bankers in the United States are against this give-away program. The only bankers who are for the aid program are those who, for one reason or another, are getting some of their money back through their banks or as individuals. [ ] said he was opposed to taking part in any war in the Middle East. He said it was best for the United States to keep out of any private throat-cutting in the Middle East or any other involvements. [ ] further advised that [ ] also stated that they do not consider the Jews as a whole as being good Americans or capable of being good Americans. [ ] stated that they do not intend to support the Arabs either.

On August 22, 1956, [ ] Gliff Hotel, San Francisco, furnished a leaflet entitled "Convention News" dated August, 1956, Special Republican Convention Edition #1. Page 2 of this leaflet reflected that "Convention News" was published singularly by the Non-Partisan League for Decency in Political Candidates, P.O. Box 1076, San Francisco.

On August 23, 1956, [ ] advised that P.O. Box 1076 was registered to Non-Partisan League for Decency in Political Candidates ("Convention News"), NPL, address c/o "Right" newsletter, 418 Ellis Street, San Francisco. The box was rented August 8, 1956.

On April 15, 1959, [ ] advised the above box was discontinued July, 1957.

On October 23, 1958, [ ] furnished the following leaflet:

SF 105-4222
ZJ/ar

"STATEMENT BEFORE THE FOREIGN POLICY SUBCOMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS, REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, AUGUST 15, 1956.

"I am [redacted] and I represent WE, THE PEOPLE, a national political-action group, and the CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS, which is located at 1263 Market Street here in San Francisco for the convenience of conservative Republicans visiting this Convention as delegates or spectators. The former group has just secured the signatures of 100,000 persons on this Petition I hold in my hand. It will be presented to the Convention as a whole. It is for these 100,000 voters, as well as for the estimated 2000 persons who will visit our Headquarters and register there, that I present this statement.

"Billions of dollars of taxpayers' money have been and are still being given away to foreign countries. Two effects of this has been to prop up socialist governments and to prevent the balancing of our own budget. Another effect apparently has been the purchase of dozens of American firms by aliens who somehow divert our 'aid' money for this purpose. Further foreign spending should be confined to strictly essential military purposes which are in the interests of the United States, instead of opposed to them. Obviously, this would rule out the insane aid to Red Yugoslavia by the present Administration; aid which--if I recall the words of Republican Senator JENNER correctly--'border on treason.'

"For years our foreign policy has been opposed to the vital interests of the United States and the present Administration has continued this New Deal policy. Embroiling ourselves in the ancient hatreds and strifes of the world, our foreign policy is the sole cause of the horrifying rise of the Godless Communist Powers. At the present time, our meddling only seems to fit into the plans of these Powers for further world conquest.

SF 105-4222

"To start with, we must immediately withdraw from the impotent and subversive United Nations and all of its related organizations, and all UN property, employees and spies must be removed from American soil.

"We support a Bricker Amendment with teeth in it and deeply regret the present Administration's bitter opposition to this sensible protective measure.

"The 'Status of Forces' Treaty, which denies the protection of the Constitution to American servicemen who are presumably fighting for that Constitution, must cease to receive support from the present Administration and must be rescinded.

"We are opposed to fighting anybody's wars in the Mid-East."

"SPECIAL GUEST ARTICLE

"WILLIS A. CARTO's past responsibilities include being Executive Director of LIBERTY & PROPERTY, Inc., a Regional Vice-President of WE, THE PEOPLE, and Secretary for the CONGRESS OF FREEDOM. During the San Francisco Republican Convention he set up and directed the CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS, which was visited by many hundreds of delegates and visitors. He is also the originator of the First National DIRECTORY of 'Rightist' Groups, which is going into its Third Edition at this time.

"He is now Corresponding Secretary for the LIBERTY LOBBY, a new concept which is attracting attention of patriots from coast to coast. It is scheduled to open in Washington July 4, 1958, or before if its budget is met earlier.

"Washington, D.C. is an occupied city. It has been captured by an aggressive coalition of minority special interest pressure groups. The federal government is the obedient servant of its captors, which band together as the occasion demands to manipulate government force in order to pry from the majority of Americans special privilege and power.

"There are economic, religious, racial and foreign pressure groups set up in Washington, all of them extremely well-organized and well-financed. Although not all of these minority special interest pressure groups are consistently inimical to American interests, in principle the system is bad. The entire system needs to be thrown out and a truly libertarian system re-established which will be in the interests of all the people, not just some.

"The Augean Stables need to be cleaned. A Second American Revolution is needed. But this presents many problems, the main one being simply that our side is not yet nearly strong enough nor well-organized enough.

"In the meantime, how can we cope with these grasping pressure groups? We must compete with them. We must compete with them on their own terms until such time as the entire pressure group system can be eliminated and government re-established in consistency with American traditions.

"Such a strategy requires the establishment of a beachhead on the battleground of Washington; an actual office must be set up, ready, willing and able to lock horns with the minority special interest pressure groups. Such an office must be backed up by thousands of voters. It will contact legislators on matters deemed vital to America by speaking for the citizen's whole and long-range interest, rather than his limited and shortsighted temporary interest. It will be a lobby for liberty and national sovereignty; a LIBERTY LOBBY!

"At present, there are a few offices and individuals in Washington which do good work insofar as their limited activities allow. But a much larger and truly coordinated effort is needed, one which will utilize the cooperative effort of all of our big patriotic groups. With the backing of the membership of the biggest dozen or so of groups a LIBERTY LOBBY will be in a position to speak out firmly for the right.

"A LIBERTY LOBBY will complement and supplement the grass-roots work of the various new party groups and political action groups. Far from there being any conflict between the two types of operations, the LOBBY will work at the 'top' - right at the seat of federal power - while the grass-roots groups will continue their essential work at the 'bottom' - at the precinct and district level. Each type of operation will benefit the other. And together they will be far stronger than alone.

"A LIBERTY LOBBY will also bring Northern and Southern groups together for political action. This will pave the way for the long-overdue formal coalition of conservative forces which is so desperately needed.

"United, the patriotic forces in America can outstrip even the most aggressive and vocal of the minority special interest pressure groups. This is because every patriot-member of the LIBERTY LOBBY will be an active and outspoken member. Such is by no means the case with the much-feared labor lobby, or teachers' lobby, or the racial lobbies. Most individual members of these lobbies are themselves too good Americans to want special favors and hand-outs at government expense. In spite of their bombast, the minority special interest pressure group bosses do not speak for all of their members.

"Now is the time for Americans to organize together in order to accomplish what we cannot accomplish alone. Now is the time for a LIBERTY LOBBY!"

On April 22, 1955, [ ] furnished a leaflet on "The Congress of Freedom Convention" to be held April 25 through 30, 1955 at Veteran's War Memorial Auditorium, San Francisco. This leaflet described the Congress of Freedom as "a coalition of patriotic American organizations which are concerned with increasing tendencies towards internationalism through the United Nations." The name [ ] was one of 24 names listed under Board of Directors.

The April 21, 1955 issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle", page 7, column 1, reflects that according to [ ] the Congress of Freedom, which was to meet in San Francisco in the coming week, was set up about five years ago as a "coalition of what are known in modern parlance talk as right-wing organizations", about 500 of them in all. The article reflected that as [ ] answered questions, it developed that the Congress does not consist of organizations at all, but of 500 individuals who are affiliated with various organizations. These individuals may or may not be official representatives of those organizations, according to the article. The article also stated that [ ] conceded that if you eliminate local chapters of national organizations, then maybe only 100 or so organizations are involved. The article further identified Liberty and Property, Inc. as one of the organizations to be represented officially, according to [ ].

The article stated that [ ] appeared in San Francisco the day before at the helm of the Congress of Freedom.

The May 1, 1955 issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle", page 14, column 2, reflects an article entitled "'Congress of Freedom' Ends with Clash on Religious Issue." This article stated in part that "the 'Congress of Freedom', a 'coalition of right-wing forces' concluded its week long meeting here yesterday with a series of resolutions, blasting the United Nations, its agencies and its supporters in the United States.

One article entitled "Northern League Office Opened" reflected that the first North American Office of the Northern League had been established in Sausalito, California. The article further stated that [ ] Sausalito resident, has been named local [ ] of the branch. [ ] brilliant retired professor and author whose articles have often appeared in 'Right' will assist in organizational work.

AKA.

From a review of this case it is not apparent that there is sufficient probable cause to justify an active investigation. Investigations of this type are generally limited to individuals or organizations concerning whom there is some clear indication of advocating, condoning or inciting violence for the purpose of denying others their constitutional rights. In the absence of information indicating that            has a potential for violence under these standards, investigation should be discontinued and auxiliary offices should be advised that the case has been closed administratively.

If your office is in possession of information indicating that            has a potential for violence, the Bureau should be immediately advised in full detail.

San Francisco files reflect that one CLIFORD DAMBACHER was reported by the Oakland, California Police Department on 10/12/40 in response to an inquiry from the San Francisco Office reportedly to reside at Salvation Army headquarters, Oakland, California. He was born 2/7/93 in Sonoma, California, had a two-year high school education and had studied at the Los Angeles Bible Institute. He worked for the Goodwill Industries from 10/16/39 to 7/10/40; was married and was considered a religious fanatic. He was very bitter against the English People.

San Francisco files reflect that the "San Francisco Examiner" for 9/11/58 stated, ". . . a bearded nudist [redacted] of Holy City in Santa Cruz County, representing the National Nudist
Council, said that pictures of the naked human body are not necessarily obscene. [redacted] admit that his organization was 'firmly cause distribution difficulties for its official magazines which feature photographs of nudists."

Your only chance to succeed in Holy City is to publicly proclaim your adherence to the Holy City construction covenant of 1956." A communication dated June 15, 1956, on the letterhead of Liberty and Property, Inc., Post Office Box 180, San Francisco, described Liberty and Property, Inc., as primarily "another one of the dozens of Right Wing political action groups."

A photostat copy of a letter written by [redacted] in 1955 reflected he had made a trip throughout the United States and contacted numerous Rightist Nationalist organizations and individuals. This letter also stated that [redacted] was contacting groups which were against communism, against communist infiltrated state governments, the Supreme Court decision on segregation, and the letter further stated that he had also contacted groups called the "Citizens Councils of the Southern States," which were against desegregation. The letter stated that the purpose of his trip was to contact people concerning Liberty and Property, Inc., with the end of gaining some important support for it. The letter indicated he had been successful in getting this support.

A leaflet entitled, "The Second Edition of the New Enlarged First National Directory of 'Rightist' Groups, Publications and Some Individuals in the United States (and Some Foreign Countries)," received in November 1955, reflected that this Directory of "Rightist" groups, publications, and some individuals, described in the title, was being published for sale as a special service by Liberty and Property, Inc., Post Office Box 180, San Francisco, California. A partial list of the attractions in this Directory included the following:

- Anti-Internationalist groups.
- Libertarian groups.
- Anti-Communist and Anti-Socialist groups.
- States' Rights' groups.
- Right-to-Work groups.
- Anti-Fluoridation groups.
- Religious groups.

Progress Report #5, dated October 14, 1955, on the letterhead of Liberty and Property, Inc., Post Office Box 180, San Francisco, reflected that it was necessary to create a means whereby all new developments and new, as well as tried and true, ideas could be expressed, and consequently, "We are proud to announce that this marks the beginning of publication of 'Right,' a new monthly bulletin of, by, and for the American Patriotic Movement. In order to be effective, 'Right' intends to report, without bias or favoritism, all significant activity of the American Right Wing. As we define it, this means any organization or group, which is interested primarily in one or two basic essentials, qualifies for such matter. Because of the vast scope of the ideals envisioned by the groups concerned, these two criteria are necessarily negative. The two negative criteria are Anti-Marxism and Anti-Internationalism. Taken together, these two principles come close to meaning Americanism in our book."

The October 31, 1958, issue of "Right" contains an article entitled, "Northern League Office Opened," which article reflects that the first North American Office of the Northern League had been established in Sausalito, California. The article stated that, "The object of the Northern League is cultural; to create better relations between 'white' people of all nations. In this way, the mutual misunderstandings will be eliminated, which have so far resulted in two terrible world wars and which now weaken the resistance of Christendom in its fight for survival."

Louisiana, and he listed his home address as 101 South Rolling Road, Catonsville, Maryland. ROBERTS was driving a 1952 Rambler, Maryland Tags FG 2862, during the time he was passing literature at the Super Giant in Lanham, Maryland.

On 10/8/62, SAs L. COTTRELL SCHMIDT and LAURENCE E. DANBON made inquiry at 917 East Capitol Street and determined from JOHN KOSKUS, Resident Manager, 917 East Capitol St., that JOSEPH EDWARD ROBERTS was a roomer in this establishment from June to the latter part of September, 1962. KOSKUS advised that when ROBERTS moved out he left a note which stated his mail should be forwarded to 918 East Capitol Street, the Office of the Liberty Lobby, directly across the street. KOSKUS said that ROBERTS lived alone at 917 East Capitol Street.

Inquiry was made 918 East Capitol Street and JOHN WOOD advised he is the General Counsel for the Liberty Lobby. WOOD advised that ROBERTS was employed by the Liberty Lobby on a number of projects, but that during the last part of September, 1962, ROBERTS departed. WOOD said he believes ROBERTS went to New Orleans; however, he has not communicated with the Liberty Lobby since he departed. WOOD was asked if the flyers which were distributed by ROBERTS originated from the Liberty Lobby and if they did it was firmly requested that further distribution should cease and that Mr. HOOVER, the Director of the FBI, and the FBI does not value, nor wish to be injected into their present campaign. WOOD replied that the Liberty Lobby did not originate nor serve as a starting point for the flyers. WOOD admitted reading one of the flyers; however, and commented he is whole heartedly in favor of such a campaign. He said ROBERTS did not distribute these flyers as a Liberty Lobby project.

For info of the Bureau, WFO indices indicates the Liberty Lobby is a "rightest organization", concerned with presenting "Right Wing" views to members of Congress.

The attention of the Bureau is also invited to the report of SA ZAVEN JARDARIAN at San Francisco dated 5/7/59

captioned "WILLIS ALLISON CARTO, WFOlet to Bureau dated 1/18/61, captioned "WILLIS ALLISON CARTO" and SFlet to Bureau dated 12/19/60, captioned "WILLIS ALLISON CARTO".

JOHN WOOD further commented that he is a law graduate from the University of Texas, and has as his fellow workers at 918 East Capitol Street, KENNETH LYNN and ROBERT BARROWS.

As stated above, the address of JOSEPH EDWARD ROBERTS was noted as 101 South Rolling Road, Catonsville, Md., and that he was driving a 1952 Rambler with Maryland Tags FG 2662, in the later part of September, 1962. In this regard the Bureau may wish to obtain additional background on ROBERTS at the above mentioned address and a check of the Maryland Motor Vehicle Division.

WFO contemplates no additional investigation in this matter.

One copy of this communication is being included in WFO file 157-69, which pertains to WILLIS ALLISON CARTO and the Liberty Lobby.

The above is submitted for Washington's information.

Attached hereto for Washington's information are Xerox copies of San Francisco airtel dated 3/6/63 entitled "The Noontide Press" and LHM of the same date captioned "Imperium" which contains information concerning the Noontide Press and [REDACTED].

IMPERIUM

The Noontide Press, Post Office Box 713, Sausalito, California, is distributing copies of a second edition of "Imperium" which was written originally in 1948 by FRANCIS PARKER YOCKEY under the nom de plume of ULICK VARANGE. This edition was copyrighted in 1962 and published by The Truth Seeker Company, 38 Park Row, New York, New York.

Publicity issued by The Noontide Press in connection with this edition alleged that "Imperium" was suppressed by enemies of western civilization, that the author was hounded for years, that he was held unconstitutionally under the enormous bail of $50,000 although no charges were placed against him, and that he committed suicide because of continued harassment. The book originally appeared in two volumes and the second edition has been combined into a single volume of over six hundred pages with a thirty-five page introduction by W. A. CARTO.

The introduction by CARTO declares that YOCKEY was a gifted writer who studied languages and became a linguist but that it was as a philosopher that he reached the summit. CARTO noted that YOCKEY practiced law in Illinois and in Detroit as an Assistant County Attorney. Fort Wayne County, after receiving an honorable medical discharge from the Army in 1942. CARTO alleges that YOCKEY never lost a case as a lawyer.

CARTO points out in his introduction that YOCKEY went to Europe after receiving a job with the War Crimes Tribunal and that he concluded that the entire procedure of these war crime trials was serving the interest of international communism. 157-69-16

CARTO declares that YOCKEY prepared reports for the war crime trials for eleven months and terminated the employment because a superior advised him these reports had the wrong slant and that he would have to rewrite the reports to conform with "official viewpoint".

CARTO alleges that the only crime of YOCKEY was to write a book, "Imperium" and that for this he had to die.

✓CARTO alleges that the State Department in 1952 refused to renew the passport of YOCKEY and that a game then developed between the FBI and YOCKEY because the FBI had received instructions to keep YOCKEY under surveillance at all times. When YOCKEY's whereabouts was known, the FBI watched him night and day, according to CARTO. When he dropped temporarily from sight, as he did frequently, his friends, relatives and contacts allegedly were interrogated constantly by agents who kept repeating they just wanted to talk to him.

CARTO concludes that the spectacle of a man being persecuted, framed and driven to his death simply because he wrote a book is not one which could be expected in the 20th Century in the land of the free and the home of the brave. CARTO asks, however, whether people in the United States are free when a person whose only crime was to write a book is denied a passport, when a citizen can be arrested without a warrant and held in jail without charges and under fantastic bail, when "free press" vultures can heap scorn upon his head, when a sensitive genius can be held in the filthiest of jails with Negro and white criminals, and when a judge can rule that a prisoner is not to have a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury?

CARTO emphasizes that YOCKEY was neither pro-Russian nor anti-Russian, although "certain of his captors" called him "anti-American and pro-Russian". He also alleges that accusations of "anti-Semitism" should be interpreted on the same level.

CARTO declares that some weeks after YOCKEY's death by suicide the man who had been charged with railroading him, the United States Attorney, suddenly and without explanation resigned from his job, left his wife and children, and joined a monastery.

A source advised on March 4, 1963, that mailed copies of the book "Imperium" enclosed a reprint of an article from "Right", #59, August, 1960, which contained an article entitled "Creative Genius Driven to Suicide". This article alleged that YOCKEY's doom was sealed from the moment "Imperium" was published. The Anti-Defamation League reportedly began a world-wide persecution of YOCKEY and the United States allegedly questioned hundreds of people at a cost of thousands of dollars because he was "suspected of heading an international conspiracy against the Government." The article alleged that these persecutions caused YOCKEY to utilize false names and passports as a result of which he was arrested in Oakland on June 6, 1960, with three passports and held for $50,000 bail. The article alleged that YOCKEY then suffered the following illegalities and civil rights violations:

1. The FBI arrested him without a warrant in violation of the Fourth Amendment.
2. His bail was set at $50,000 by Judge JOSEPH KARESH, an Ordained Rabbi.
3. He suffered cruel and unusual punishment in the City Jail.
4. The papers misquoted YOCKEY and whipped up public hatred against him.
5. He was denied interviews with friends.

The article concluded that YOCKEY learned that no jury trial was to be allowed and that he lost hope, causing him to commit suicide. His death, however, has made him a martyr for ideas - ideas that will not die with a thousand Anti-Defamation Leagues.

A letter accompanying mail orders of the second edition of "Imperium" publicizes the availability of another book by YOCKEY, allegedly written and given to a few close friends a few months before his death and published in July, 1961. This booklet is identified as "The World in Flames" and reportedly deals with the approaching war between Russia and the West.

Also enclosed with the mail copy of the book "Imperium" was a list of other books available through the Noontide Press which included the "First National Directory of 'Rightist Groups', 4th Edition", "American Race Theorist", "The World of Oneness", "Race and Social Revolution", "Race and Reason", "Origin of Races", and "The Hybrid Race Doctrine."

A second source advised that Post Office Box 713 is rented to the Northern League, which rental was arranged by [redacted]. The Noontide Press also receives mail at this box, which mail frequently is picked up by one [redacted].

[redacted] on October 23, 1958, was reported by a third source to have white racist ideas and to be extremely anti-Semitic. He reportedly has spent considerable funds in mailing out "hate literature" and doing some writing on his own on this subject.

[redacted] on November 3, 1958, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that he was opposed to integration and believed in white supremacy although he did not favor physical violence.

A fourth source on November 26, 1962, advised that a letter dated November 6, 1962, from The Noontide Press and advertising the book "Imperium" appeared over the purported signature of [redacted] as [redacted].

[redacted] on February 25, 1963, was identified by a fifth source as a subscriber to the "People's World" newspaper, a west coast communist weekly publication, in 1950. In 1960, he was active in campaigns to abolish the House Committee on un-American Activities.

[redacted]
[redacted] was listed as one of three persons in the original articles of incorporation filed by Liberty and Property, Incorporated, on July 30, 1954. Liberty and Property, Incorporated, was described by a communication dated June 15, 1956, on one of its letterheads as primarily "another one of dozens of right-wing political action groups."

A sixth source in 1955 identified [redacted] as an individual who had made a trip throughout the United States and contacted numerous rightist nationalist organizations and individuals. [redacted] reportedly contacted groups which were against communism, against communist-infiltrated state governments and against the Supreme Court decision on integration.

A Liberty and Property, Incorporated, Progress Report dated October 14, 1955, announced the creation of a new publication entitled "Right," which purportedly intended to report, without bias or favoritism, all significant activities of the American right wing.

The September, 1960, issue of "Right" was described as the last issue of that publication.

The November, 1958, issue of "Right" contained an article entitled "Northern League Office Opened," which noted that an office of that league had been established in Sausalito, California. The article stated that the object of the Northern League was cultural to create better relations between "white people" of all nations.

On December 17, 1958, [redacted] advised that [redacted]

It should be noted YOCKEY was apprehended on June 19, 1960 for a violation of the Selective Service Act by FBI Agents. Upon arrest he refused to identify himself or to explain why he possessed four passports from different countries under different names.

[redacted] furnished the following information:

Americans ~~for~~ National Security is located at 300 Independence Avenue, S. E. This organization merged with Liberty Lobby in May, 1966. Liberty Lobby purports to be a "pressure group for patriotism - the only lobby registered with Congress which is wholly dedicated to the advancement of governmental policies based on our Constitution and Conservative principles." It was organized in 1955, for the purpose of "reversing the dangerous trend toward socialization internally and to defeat the insidious effort to weaken our resistance to international communism." It is against "so-called 'civil rights' laws" and is for "States Rights."

[redacted] began to question the kind of organization Liberty Lobby was when he saw all the racist and "hate" material coming in to the offices of Liberty Lobby. He noticed that the people at Liberty Lobby, particularly [redacted] of Liberty Lobby, were anti-Negro and anti-Semitic. [ ] advised that [ ], a member of the John Birch Society, who was fired by [ ] at Liberty Lobby, said that [ ] is a "National Socialist" and that he worshiped "Aryan Gods." [ ] stated that he did not think that [ ] had made the remarks about [ ] to spite [ ] for firing [ ].

[ ] stated that he had no definite information that [ ] was a "National Socialist." He stated that he believes [ ] to be a "National Socialist" based on his racist and anti-Semitic statements. [redacted] stated that he also suspects [redacted], who is connected with the Friends of Rhodesian Independence and the Young Americans For Freedom, is involved with Liberty Lobby. According to [redacted] resides at [redacted]. He stated that [redacted] has boxes full of "really racist" material. However, the only material [redacted] produced was correspondence by [redacted] in 1955 and 1956, trying to enlist support for a program to repatriate the Negroes in the United States to Africa. The correspondence indicated that Senator WILLIAM LANGER of North Dakota, had introduced a bill to accomplish this. [redacted] wrote to White Citizens Councils and Black Nationalist Groups who agreed with the repatriation plan in order to enlist their support, for Senator LANGER's bill.

[redacted] stated that Liberty Lobby has a burglar alarm on their office doors. He also claimed that there is a gun in a packing crate in one of the closets at Liberty Lobby. He stated that he has seen the gun and that the gun is ready to fire. It is not encased in a storage compound. However, [redacted] said he could not say whether the gun is a rifle or a machine gun or some other type gun. He stated that it looks like a .30 caliber rifle.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] gets everything he wants at Liberty Lobby and apparently has contacts with other conservative groups.

[ ] was questioned as to specific information he had in which there was some clear indication that [ ] advocated condoned or incited violence for the purpose of denying others their constitutional rights. He stated that he had no such specific information, but that in his experience he found that those who shout "conspiracy" the loudest, are sometimes, in fact, the conspirators. He stated that everyone is concerned with the fact that the communists are involved in the civil unrest in the country over civil rights. He feels that it is very possible that the Nazis might also be involved in this unrest for their own purposes. However, as stated above, he has been unable to make [ ] admit any such activities even after [ ] had baited him with some inflammatory racial remarks.

According to [ ] there seems to be an interlocking cooperation between Liberty Lobby, the Young Republicans, and other conservative groups. He said a large amount of mail comes into the Liberty Lobby offices, a lot of it containing money, usually $5.00 or $10.00. The United Republicans of America, whose office is right above Liberty Lobby, are very close to Liberty Lobby. Friends of Rhodesian Independence, according to [ ] is a "front" group for Liberty Lobby. "The Washington Observer" and "American Mercury" two conservative publications, have merged according to [ ] and are printed by Gray Printing Company in Washington, D. C. [ ] seems able to get things published in these publications. [ ] of Liberty Letter, and [ ] of Liberty Letter can sign checks for "The Washington Observer." [ ] was interviewed on 9/7/66. Receipt of his letter to the Director was orally acknowledged and the 14 pieces of correspondence furnished by him were returned to him. [ ]

[ ] further advised that he has "files" on about 50 people, although he is not sure which people he has files on.

He subscribes to "Hate Literature" through the name of [ ] [ ] The Post Office is aware of his true identity. He wrote to about 50 "hate organizations" for literature like "Common Sense" "Thunderbolt" and similar literature.

Concerning [ ] statements that [ ] feels that the conservative cause is failing, the material furnished by [ ] does not bear out this statement. According to some of the material written by [ ] and submitted by [ ] feels that the conservatives are becoming stronger in this country, and he cites some political victories and predictions to prove his point.

Concerning the "racist" material that [ ] allegedly said [ ] has, the only material [ ] produced was correspondence by [ ] in 1955 and 1956, trying to enlist the support of prominent conservative people for a program to repatriate the Negroes in the United States to Africa. According to this correspondence Senator WILLIAM LANGER of North Dakota had introduced a bill to accomplish this repatriation. According to [ ] most of the people that [ ] had written to in 1955 and 1956 were now deceased.

[ ] was inconsistent in some of his statements. For instance, he stated that [ ] a writer in "American Mercury" was a "unname," a pseudonym used to write controversial articles. Later [ ] said he wished he knew if [ ] were a real man.

Also [ ] furnished material which he said was written by [ ]. However, the material itself had no indication on it that it had been written by [ ]. When questioned about this [ ] said he thought [ ] had written it because [ ] could recognize [ ] "style" and he stated that [ ] typewriting was distinctive, claiming that he hit some of the keys on the typewriter harder than others.

It is WFO's recommendation that no investigation be conducted based on [ ] information. His only definite information on which he based his allegation was the fact that [ ] makes "racist remarks and anti-Semitic remarks." [ ] organization is and has been opposed to civil rights legislation, and he has been an advocate of the repatriation of Negroes to Africa. [ ] has claimed in some of the material he has written that responsible Negroes desire this repatriation to preserve the purity of the race. In fact, some of the material furnished by [ ] was correspondence from Negro organizations which did, in fact, agree with [ ] plan. Also [ ] and his organization publicly claimed to be anti-communist and in the fashion of other such groups contend that communism is an "International Jewish Conspiracy." Therefore, although [ ] may be overly zealous and misguided, [ ] information does not add to what [ ] and Liberty Lobby have been contending for years. Also [ ] documents do not, as he contends, show any "National Socialist" conspiracy. Most of them are ten years old and involve the support of a bill by Senator LANGER. Also some of [ ] allegations about [ ] are based on statements made by [ ] a member of the John Birch Society, who was fired by [ ] at Liberty Lobby.

In the opinion of the interviewing agent, [ ] has a "detective complex." He is a crusader who is so enthusiastic that he is trying to wear the hats of both communism and the ultra-right in Baltimore. His hope to accomplish this even in light of his being arrested for demonstrating in opposition to BAYARD RUSTIN is indicative of his enthusiasm.

WFO has files on both Liberty Lobby and [ ] There is nothing in these files which warrant, with the addition of the information furnished by [ ] a security investigation in the opinion of WFO. Therefore WFO is conducting no further investigation in this matter UACB.

ReBuairtel to SACs New York and WFO, captioned as above, and WFOlet to Bu, 4/16/69, Liberty Lobby.

Enclosed for the Bureau, Baltimore, New York and Alexandria, are nine, two, two and two copies, respectively, of an LHM captioned, "National Youth Alliance." Information copies being furnished to Chicago, Pittsburgh, Salt Lake, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Atlanta, New Orleans and Detroit.

The interview of [ ] set out in enclosed LHM was conducted by SAs [ ] and [ ]

It is being pointed out that [ ] gave the impression of having had personal disagreements with [ ] of Liberty Lobby, and as a result was illdisposed toward [ ]. Also, [ ] stated that "Statecraft," allegedly financed by Liberty Lobby, had recently published an attack on [ ]. WFO is attempting to secure copies of this publication through established sources.

A review of WFO files, with respect to [ ] Liberty Lobby and [ ] and related matters, showed that the information relating to alleged Nazi or fascist sympathies on part of [ ], and with respect to the book, "Imperium," is not new information and has been furnished to the Bureau previously by WFO and San Francisco (re San Francisco airtel, 3/6/63, captioned, "The Noontide Press, P.O. Box 713, Sausalito, California, Research (Crime Records)," enclosing an LHM dated 3/6/63, captioned "Imperium."

Also, it would appear that [ ] differed with [ ] and Liberty Lobby largely for personal reasons, rather than "philosophically," as anti-Negro and anti-Semitic cartoons were observed as decorations in his office. [ ] gave the impression of political naivete and affected an image of the political, intellectual and philosopher.

An example of his naivete occurred while discussing various extremist groups in that he appeared genuinely surprised that [ ] of the Minutemen, was a fugitive and had been connected with bank robbery. Prior to this revelation, he shrugged off the Minutemen organization as ineffectual people with "Hangups" to take to the hills with their "machine guns" when the "Commies take over." Also, it is believed that he was eager to affirm information to [ ] that put [ ] in a bad light.

When attempts were made by interviewing agents to pin down the membership of NYA, [ ] was vague and gave the definite impression that, with the exception of a few former Youth for Wallace (YFW) members and [ ] stalwarts scattered throughout the U.S., it was largely a "paper" organization. It is believed, however, that [ ] considered the Yockey movement as subversive, but not intentionally or specifically prone to violence.

In view of the above, it is not believed that an active investigation of the NYA should be conducted at this time. Possible embarrassment to the Bureau could incur in active investigation of this matter at this time through efforts of [ ] or [ ] and DREW PEARSON, by attempts to use an FBI investigation to achieve publicity. However, WFO will continue to follow activities of Liberty Lobby, [ ] and "Statecraft," as they relate to this matter through established sources.

Local dissemination being made to Secret Service and to military intelligence agencies.

NATIONAL YOUTH ALLIANCE

[redacted] American Southern Africa Council, 208 Third Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. (WDC), furnished the following information concerning an alleged subversive element within the National Youth Alliance (NYA) to representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), May 8, 1969. [redacted] characterized the NYA as a coalition of conservative youth organizations whose purpose was to eject certain campus oriented groups, such as the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), which, in the opinion of many, are fomenting chaotic conditions on American campuses.

The SDS is described in the appendix.

[redacted] advised that during the 1968 Presidential campaign, [redacted] Liberty Lobby, a prominent, publically recognized conservative organization which publishes "Liberty Letter," an organ devoted to Conservative political opinion, financially supported the Youth for Wallace (YFW) organization. Following the campaign, through [redacted] the YFW was reorganized into the NYA. The membership consisted largely of the mailing list of the now defunct YFW. During the early part of 1969, various meetings and conferences were held in Chicago; Pittsburgh; Provo, Utah; Los Angeles; Atlanta; and New Orleans in order to organize the NYA.

[redacted] advised that he was then associated with [redacted] and the YFW and accepted the [redacted] of NYA. Associated with him in the NYA was [redacted]

NATIONAL YOUTH ALLIANCE

During February and March, 1969, it became apparent to [ ] that there were elements within the NYA that were, in his opinion, fascist or Nazi oriented. [ ] stated that he formed this opinion because of the [ ] inspired emergence of a philosophy set out in a book entitled, "Imperium," written by Francis Parker Yockey, and exemplified by a movement within the NYA and referred to as the "Francis Parker Yockey Movement." [ ] noted that this book is distributed by Liberty Lobby.

[ ] stated that the Yockey Movement in his opinion was a semi-secret alliance of individuals within the NYA that were aligned with [ ]; further, he felt this alignment was strongest in the Pittsburgh area.

[ ] stated that this element within the NYA first came to his attention when he attended an NYA meeting in Provo, Utah, and became aware of an NYA newsletter being distributed, which, according to [ ], had been oriented toward extremism by [ ]. [ ] explained that he and his associates had written part of the Newsletter, but [ ] had changed its theme before it was released.

During March, [ ] attempted to eliminate the fascist element, but were themselves forced into an untenable position within the NYA and as a result resigned from any connection with the NYA. This action occurred at a meeting at Conley's Motor Hotel, Monroeville, Pennsylvania, near Pittsburgh. This meeting was attended by about forty to fifty individuals.

On about March 30, 1969, an NYA election was held at the Pick Roosevelt Hotel, Pittsburgh, and [ ] was elected [ ] (telephone [ ]) NYA. According to [ ] was anti-fascist and was opposed to [ ] and the movement within NYA.

However, according to [ ] will sooner or later control NYA as "[ ] pays the postage." Meaning that [ ] believes that the NYA, as did the YFW, receives most of its financing from Liberty Lobby.

NATIONAL YOUTH ALLIANCE

[ ] stated that to his knowledge a leading figure within the NYA "Yockey Movement" is one [ ] of Wheaton, Maryland. He described [ ] as a [ ] of the John Birch Society (JBS) in the Pittsburgh area. [ ] according to [ ] was kicked out of the JBS because he was "organizing for [ ]". The JBS is a publicly recognized conservative political organization.

With respect to advocacy of violence by the Nazi or fascist element within the NYA, [ ] stated that he sincerely believed that this was not [ ] "style." Rather, the Yockey Movement would attempt to establish in effect a fascist or Nazi system or philosophy among campus youth as set out in the book, "Imperium." He described this philosophy as a form of "Hegelian philosophy based upon logical argumentation; a dialectic logic similar to that utilized by Karl Marx."

[ ] emphatically stated that the above so-called Nazi element within the NYA was completely separate from the American Nazi Party, now known as the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP).

The NSWPP is described in the appendix.

Acord stated that he was certain that there was no NYA organization involvement on campuses in the Washington, D.C. area.

[ ] also advised that a publication entitled, "Statecraft," published by Daniel Paulson, [ ] was not directly connected to NYA. He stated that this publication was not known to be affiliated with any organization, but claims to be an "affiliation of patriotic action groups." The specific purpose is to combat the spread of Communist created anarchy and savagery. Statecraft propaganda is directed toward combating "Pro-Communist SDS and black power terrorists." The editor of this publication is C.B. Baker of the above address.

NATIONAL YOUTH ALLIANCE

[ ] stated that "Statecraft" receives financial assistance from Liberty Lobby.

With respect to possible extortion threats made against him, [ ] stated that during the period of his struggle within the NYA, he had received two threatening telephone calls. Both calls were received on the same evening on an unrecalled date in March, 1969. These calls were from an unidentified male who threatened him with physical harm if he ([ ]) did not give up his office in the NYA. [ ] could not determine if the calls were of a local or long-distance nature, nor could he in any way identify the caller.

[ ] stated that he has received no threats by mail and that there have been no further threats directed against him since the above incident. [ ] advised that he had not seriously regarded the above threats and had "shrugged them off at the time."

[ ] stated that he had been contacted recently by [ ] associate of the columnist, Drew Pearson, who had asked [ ] if substantially the information as set out above was true. [ ] stated that he had informed [ ] that it was.

The Friday, May 2, 1969, edition of "The Washington Post," page D-15, contained an article written by Jack Anderson and Drew Pearson entitled, "Campus Extremists Worry Nixon," which referred in part to the NYA. This article noted that [ ] had been forced out of the NYA by [ ] and that [ ] a Wayne University student, had been elected to [ ] NYA.

According to this article, [ ] wrote a letter to [ ] stating that his election to NYA clearly showed that NYA would not accept a "Philosophy of Nazism." Also, [ ] stated that he was ordering a halt to the distribution of the book, "Imperium." This article concluded by noting that [ ] had "his stooges" in NYA send [ ] a telegram declaring that [ ] had been ousted.

Information copies of this communication are being furnished to NY, LA, AX, CO, DE, AT, BA, NO, PH, SU, PG, and SF.

During February, 1969, NYO determined that the NYPD had initiated investigation of the NYA because of racial overtones contained in literature allegedly circulated by the NYA, Rockaway Beach, NY. It was also determined that the individual associated or representing himself as NYA indicated that he believed the NYA would use violence to counter the SDS if necessary.

On 2/18/69, [ ] advised that if there was any physical contact with college rebels on the part of NYA people, it would be by individual NYA members rather than as a NYA group action.

Further, the NYPD determined that the Long Island Director of the NYA denied knowledge of the above leaflets. It was indicated that the leaflets were distributed by an individual falsely indicating NYA auspices. This individual [ ] was later determined to be associated with [ ] and [ ] then of WDC, and New York City respectively. These latter individuals subsequent to February began what appears to be a campaign to discredit the NYA movement as a bone-fide conservative student organization and to establish it and [ ] of Liberty Lobby, WDC, as a neo-nazi element.

b7D

This campaign consisted of these individuals "leaking" information concerning Nazism to columnists DREW PEARSON and [ ], preparation of so-called affidavits, complaints to various FBI field offices alleging threats made by alleged Minutemen elements and appearance on various controversial "talk shows." The motivation behind this campaign appeared in the form of statements made by [ ] and [ ] to the FBI and to others that clearly indicated personal and organizational disagreements with [ ]. These disagreements arose with [ ] withdrawing financial support of [ ] and his activities and with [ ] alleged manipulations of NYA politics that resulted in [ ] and [ ] being replaced in the NYA leadership offices. It is significant that the opening salvo by [ ] and [ ] in this matter was the accusation of Nazism on part of [ ] through "his" NYA to PEARSON and [ ] who were well known arch enemies of [ ].

From information determined by NYO and WFO, it would not appear that [ ] and [ ] are without the taint of racism and Nazism. During July, 1969, [ ] and [ ] appeared on the Barry Farber Show, WOR, NYC, whereon [ ] admitted buying, early in 1969, Nazi relics, swastika armband, Nazi party pins, and record albums of German War songs. [ ] also admitted writing certain letters which he signed in a manner connoting either neo-nazism or a high degree of emotional immaturity.

[ ] on the above show practically endorsed the book Imperium, so-called bible of the NYA, and alleged treatise on Nazism or Fascism, but requested not to be quoted in this respect, "...right now, I'm condemning [ ] has for some time operated an organization called American-Southern Africa Council which concerns itself with support of anit-black South Africa.

He also maintained cartoons and other paraphernalia in his office having racial overtones.

With respect to guidelines set out in MI, Section 122, it can be said that the NYA has not at this time actually or allegedly committed acts of violence to deny others their rights under the constitution. It is not apparent at this time that the NYA has adopted a policy or has allegedly adopted a policy of advocating, condoning or inciting the use of force or violence to deny others their rights.

From the above, it would appear that questions of physical violence, racism or Nazism could better be related to investigation of particular individuals involved or under NSWPP caption rather than risk possible embarrassment to the Bureau by conducting an active investigation of the NYA at this time.

Further, investigation of the National Socialist White Peoples Party, aka The American Nazi Party, and information determined from sources familiar with the NSWPP and other White Hate groups in the WDC area has indicated no information that the NSWPP is even aware of the existence of the NYA.

In regard to the book, Imperium, by FRANCIS PARKER YOCKEY which is held generally to be the so-called bible of NYA, a copy was secured by WFO through [ ] and the following was determined.

Imperium was written under YOCKEY'S pen name ULICK VARANGE. [ ] wrote an introduction to this book and noted that "ULICK" is an Irish given name which means "Reward of the mind;" "VARANGE" refers to a roving band of Norse "heros" who strove to civilize Russia, built the Russian aristocracy and were subsequently "butchered by the Bolscheviks."

The book is a lengthy philosophycal discourse on history and politics which even CARTO in the introduction notes that, "...there is something for everyone to agree with." He also notes that the book is a "... sequel to (OSWALD) SPENGLER'S, 'Decline of the West'". The book does admit to racism, but appears to define race more along cultural lines rather than strictly affinity of color. According to CARTO, Imperium says that unless the Western Culture begins to believe in itself, and makes an effort for self-preservation, it will sicken because of infections and dilutions with non-Western cultures (or races) and die.

Current copies of the book are published by the Noontide Press, Sausalito, California, and is available through the NYA office in WDC and through Liberty Lobby. The copyright is held by Noontide Press, 1962.

Statecraft Wrecks S.D.S. - Black Panther Rally

by Jules MacCabee

While Bougeois cowardly groups, such as Y.A.F., are wasting all their time and effort in trying to get meaningless "court orders" from "our" liberal controlled courts to fight the S.D.S., STATECRAFT is in the field agitating and fighting. A case in point took place recently at Maryland University. Our intelligence network reported plans for an illegal S.D.S. rally. A group of animal-like Black Panthers were coming down from Baltimore to be S.D.S. guests of honor, and to speak (grunt) to the students. We tried to get further confirmation about the illegal rally from a high ranking Y.A.F. member on the Maryland University campus. Not only did he know nothing started to give out copies of STATECRAFT. Students (who get nothing but liberal tripe or boring Y.A.F. literature to read because of liberal control of communications) eagerly grabbed STATECRAFT. They started to laugh at our anti-S.D.S. and black power cartoons, since all the caricatures resembled the real thing. One of the domesticated Negroes, with an incredulous voice full of awe, read parts of STATECRAFT to his four colleagues. With rapt attention and tongues hanging out, the four blacks listened to Paul Freeman's article, "Myth of Negro Equality Attacked."

The S.D.S. white trash laughed

The Resistance

by Alex Devereaux

Most Conservatives and Rightists are not emotionally prepared for the struggle with the Liberals. Many of us entertain a doctrine of instant salvation, whereby America will be freed, if we elect Barry Goldwater or George Wallace President. No matter how much we despise the Liberals, we should not underestimate them. Liberals are not quitters. All the rats do not leave a ship once the captain brings aboard a cat. They must be hunted down, one-by-one.

Some of this wishful-thinking

How To Smash Liberalism

That Liberalism came over on the Mayflower (to terrorize the Indians) is not to be doubted; we need only read in our Liberal-supplied textbooks and other propaganda to prove this to ourselves. What has been presented to us by our Liberal Masters as "the American Way" was simply the first manifestations of Liberalism in our country. Here, the Liberals (unlike those crude, simplistic barbarians, the Russian Communists) do not change history, they edit history. The biggest lie is a half-truth; an easily refuted. The literation and the perpetuation of Liberal rule. We should avoid giving Liberal rule a breathing spell long enough to establish Absolutism. We should promote popular disillusionment with Liberalism, which is bound to develop due to economic hardship. If we are criticised for our efforts we may point to the Soviet Union. Once they have achieved Absolutism, Leftists can dispense with wasting resources on a high standard of living for the masses.

The first things to do are:
1. Get out of the stock market that we were actually going to interfere with an S.D.S. meeting Confirmation was secured from other sources, and that night all local STATECRAFT agitators were notified.

The next day the STATECRAFT agitators arrived early to organize various campus groups, such as: fraternities. They then took up strategic positions in the rally area.

Soon a large crowd began to gather. Most of the spectators were curious students. The rest of the crowd was the sweeping from the gutter, including: illiterate and unwashed hippie scum; white trash S.D.S.; slobbering white liberal students and professors; a few domesticated Negroes; and the imported Black Panthers.

As an S.D.S. speaker started to speak, STATECRAFT agitators went into action. It should be noted that the school administration and Y.A.F. were nowhere to be seen preventing this illegal rally. It was up to a small group of under-financed and outnumbered STATECRAFT agitators, to take on the entire liberal power structure.

As the S.D.S. white trash leader spoke, STATECRAFT agitators

S.D.S. cartoons; the liberal establishment students and professors laughed at nothing. Everyone stopped laughing when they read the part about STATECRAFT's patriotic firing squads' preparations to shoot traitors.

While all of this was going on, STATECRAFT's agitators were harassing the S.D.S. speaker. Yells of, "Take a bath," and "Is it a boy or girl or something else again," or "a little bit of both," were heard.

When the white trash S.D.S. speaker denounced the Military-Industrial Complex, a STATECRAFT agitator started to applaud, and screamed "Let's all hear it for the Military-Industrial Complex," and the curious decent students, who had come for the show, gave a standing ovation for the Military-Industrial Complex. When the S.D.S. speaker tried vainly to incarnate in FDR, came to reign over the nation. Every four years the Patriots prepare to do battle in the voting booths, and pray for the coming of the Messiah and the Millenium. This may be an apocalyptic era, but Armageddon will not be settled by the counting of X's on pieces of paper.

In truth, Liberalism always has existed in America- in dormant and incubation stages ready to strike down its victim like any other disease. The past 25 years of relative peace and great prosperity, as in previous civilizations, have caused the infection to go into its active phase. The timid are moving to Australia or prescribing political aspirin for this Massive Liberal Cancer.

BOOKS and mass media presentations and confines other facts to a murky corner of the scholarly archives. Those black militants who can read have found a few of these facts and used them to shame our Liberal-Indoctrinated Government into further financing of Negro graft, race war, and revolution.

Liberalism is Cancer, not acne. The cure will be painful, it is not just a case of growing out of it. We must not let the Liberals wave the flag in front of our faces to convince us to cooperate in crisis situations "for the good of the country," (which translated means keeping Liberalism in power). What will be best for our country is the elimination of Liberalism, and we must be prepared for the hardships and self-sacrifice and personal risk involved in crushing Liberal Tyranny. Remember, Stalin never lost an election.

Today, this very hour, a financial crisis is brewing. It is the result of "the new economics"- spending more than you earn to create temporary - though perhaps long-lived- prosperity. If the magnitude of the crisis is limited (no one knows how big it is) an affluent minority like we Rightists could make the difference between amewill occur.

2. Don't buy U.S. Savings Bonds, sell the ones you have. The money is being used for social engineering at home and foolishly abroad, as we well know.

3. Buy foreign. The strength of the dollar is used to finance Liberalism, and against Americanism.

4. Support-or at least do not oppose -crackpot Liberal and Black Power schemes. Spend your time organizing good Conservative and Rightist programs for the people to turn to after Liberalism leads to anarchy. Just make enough noise to let people know you are ready to lead them back to Reality after the promised Utopia turns out to be like Hell. Give 'em enough rope, huh?

5. Out-Insult the Liberals and out-cuss the New Left. When a Liberal comes around with a bleeding-heart plea, tell him, "I didn't used to think Negroes were inferior, but if they need help from you, they're pretty low. No respecting ape would associate with a Liberal." If a hippie yells an obscenity, out do him and tell him where he can shove socialism. Reject Liberal "morality" - throw

A Few Facts about Willis A. Carto

For the past several months the National Youth Alliance has been subjected to a series of vicious, lying attacks. In December 1970 a copy of a scabrous smear-tabloid called "Statecraft" containing libelous material about NYA and about Louis Byers, president of NYA's advisory council, was mailed to NYA's members and supporters. Mr. Byers was called an alcoholic and a swindler who had "defrauded" contributors to NYA. It was further implied that he was both an atheist and a worshipper of Satan.

This was followed by an accusation mailed to Liberty Lobby's supporters in January 1971 that NYA is "a cynical group of profiteers posing as patriots." It was implied that NYA had stolen Liberty Lobby's mailing list.

After that, three more attacks against NYA were mailed out: one to Liberty Lobby supporters and two to NYA members and supporters. The last of these was in the April 1, 1971, issue of WASHINGTON OBSERVER NEWSLETTER and was probably the most vicious of all. It slyly implied that NYA is working for Murray Chotiner, one of Richard Nixon's more unsavory advisors, for the purpose of "victimizing and frustrating effective conservative organizations."

All these attacks have been part of a deliberate and malicious campaign to damage NYA, the one American youth organization which is effectively opposing the tide of drugs, treason, and nihilism sweeping over so many of our young people today. The man behind that campaign is Willis A. Carto -- the man who, as you will see below, "owns" Liberty Lobby and several other right-wing "front" operations.

After the "Statecraft" mailing was made, a libel suit was filed against Carto and three of his accomplices. It is civil action number 475-71 in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, and the particulars of the suit are a matter of public record, available to any interested citizen.

The investigation which was made in conjunction with the libel suit against Carto turned up some truly shocking facts. Until now NYA has made no effort to publicize these facts. NYA is not, after all, in the business of exposing swindlers. All our efforts are directed toward one goal: organizing young people into an effective force for building a better America. Willis Carto apparently interpreted this forbearance on NYA's part as either weakness or ignorance, for he has continued the wholesale circulation of his libels against NYA. He has used the "big lie" propaganda technique, in which the guilty party rushes to accuse those who have knowledge of his guilt of the very crimes he himself has committed, hoping thus to discredit anyone who might subsequently expose him.

Carto's attacks have been very costly to NYA. By confusing many of NYA's supporters with his false accusations, Carto has caused NYA's income to drop sharply, seriously hampering its work. NYA has finally decided, therefore, to set the record straight with a complete public exposure of Carto. It should be kept in mind that in exposing Carto NYA has no desire to damage Liberty Lobby, despite the fraudulent way that institution is being used to enrich one man at the expense of thousands of patriotic Americans. To try to protect Liberty Lobby now, however, by sweeping Willis Carto's deceptions and frauds under the rug can only work a greater evil in the long run. In fact, one can already see the destructive effect of Willis Carto's influence in the misguided testimony Liberty Lobby has recently been giving before Congress (see Exhibit A of the accompanying documents).

What follows must necessarily be brief. The accompanying photographic documents will be able to speak largely for themselves, however. Three principal facts should be called to your attention, namely:

1. Willis Carto has fraudulently solicited contributions for Liberty Lobby which, in fact, have gone into his own pocket. Specifically, in March 1969 he caused to be mailed to Liberty Lobby's members and subscribers an emergency appeal, over Curtis Dall's signature, for money to pay off the mortgage on the Liberty Building, at 300 Independence Avenue in Washington, D.C., where Liberty Lobby has its offices. The solicitation stated, "If we are unable to come up with $55,000 by midnight of March 26, we will be evicted." The letter went on to tell of the disadvantages of having to rent office space for Liberty Lobby: "If we have to rent office space, operations will suffer. ... Rental costs are so high that our overhead would be doubled .... If, on the other hand, we can raise the $55,000 ... we will own the Liberty Building and the land it sits on."

Liberty Lobby's members and subscribers responded generously. The April 1969 issue of LIBERTY LETTER carried a picture of Curtis Dall presenting a check for $55,235.27 to the bank holding the Liberty Building mortgage. LIBERTY LETTER reported that Dall had "a tear in his eye" during the presentation.

The sad truth is that Liberty Lobby still does not own the Liberty Building and has no prospect of ever owning it. Instead, Liberty Lobby pays rent, at the astronomical rate of $6,000 each month, to the Liberty Building's actual owner: Willis Albert Carto. Carto owns the building through one of his many "fronts," Government Educational Foundation, Inc. He is chairman of the board and treasurer and his wife is another director of the three-man board, making GEF, Inc., Carto's personal corporation, whose assets he can dispose of as he wishes (see Exhibit B, of the deed to the Liberty Building and of the deed of trust signed by Carto on January 22, 1965). The complete documents are available from the Recorder of Deeds, District of Columbia, for $5 each.

2. Willis Carto has often made the claim that Liberty Lobby never rents or sells its mailing lists. The January 1970 issue of LIBERTY LETTER, for example, stated: "... your name is safe with us. It is a private matter. We won't rent or sell your name to an outsider."

As a matter of fact, Willis Carto has for years been a mailing-list wheeler-dealer, buying, selling, and renting the mailing lists of numerous organizations, including Liberty Lobby. He brazenly operates his mailing-list rental "front," Capitol Hill Data Processing Co., from the side door of the Liberty Building itself (see Exhibit C, the advertising brochure for Capitol Hill Data Processing Co.).

Note that in addition to the lists on his advertising brochure, Carto also has rented and sold his list of current Liberty Lobby Board of Policy members. One such rental was made recently to Mr. Richard Cotten, the publisher of CONSERVATIVE VIEWPOINT, following a letter from Carto to Mr. Cotten on October 9, 1970, offering the list and setting the price. (Exhibit D is a photocopy of Mr. Cotten's cancelled check for the list.) You may write directly to Mr. Cotten, a patriot of unquestioned integrity, for the details of this particular transaction. His address appears on his check.

3. Carto has associated himself with a group of anti-social misfits collectively calling themselves "Statecraft," provided them with a copy of NYA's mailing list (which he had copied during the time NYA was sharing computer facilities with him), and urged them to represent themselves as the National Youth Alliance to NYA's members and supporters (see Exhibit F for Carto's letter of endorsement printed in "Statecraft Report").

"Statecraft" is such a disreputable publication (see Exhibit G for typical excerpts) that most Liberty Lobby supporters will be shocked to learn that a portion of the money they have been sending to Liberty Lobby was diverted to "Statecraft." What makes the matter even more shocking is the underhanded way in which Carto has used "Statecraft" as a "safe" medium to libel persons or groups against whom he is nursing a grudge or considers "competitors." On three occasions Carto has used "Statecraft" to libel former employees after they left his employ. At the time Carto first associated himself with "Statecraft," it was being published by an avowed Zionist, Daniel Paulson (Exhibit G), who also wrote for the tabloid under the significant alias Jules MacCabee!

Carto will stop at no lie in his attempt to maintain the flow of funds he is currently milking from Liberty Lobby. Certainly he will deny the facts set forth here and will claim, as he has before when threatened with exposure, that it is all a plot by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith to cripple Liberty Lobby. Therefore, if you have the least doubt as to the authenticity of the documents presented here, check them for yourself. They are all a matter of public record.

Furthermore, a number of persons of unimpeachable integrity who are thoroughly familiar with the facts cited here can substantiate the charges against Carto. One such person is the distinguished scholar and patriot, Professor Revilo P. Oliver, who has provided NYA with a four-page statement which is available upon request.

Meanwhile, NYA will continue its effort to so thoroughly expose Carto that he will never again be able to bilk the American public through any of his pseudo-patriotic "fronts" (see Exhibit H for a list of "fronts" and aliases Carto uses or has used in the past).

Ultraconservative Liberty Lobby Opposes War Effort in Indochina

By Robert C. Maynard
Washington Post Staff Writer

To the astonishment of several members of the House Armed Services Committee, the ultraconservative Liberty Lobby expressed its unequivocal opposition to the war in Indochina yesterday.

"I am surprised to hear you say that you oppose this war," said Rep. Richard Ichord (D-Mo.). "How long have you held that position?"

Warren S. Richardson, general counsel, replied:

"We have taken that position since the beginning of the intervention there—going to our founding . . . We are opposed to Moscow communism and not Vietnamese communism. We are draining away the lifeblood of our

in Indochina."

Although opposing the war, Richardson said, the Liberty Lobby favors the draft. The purpose of his appearance was to urge the committee to extend the authority of the President to induct. That authority expires June 30 and vigorous debate is shaping in Congress.

About 100 members of the House have taken a stand against renewing the President's authority. Many are liberals, but a substantial number are conservative Republicans and Democrats. Strong opposition to the idea of an all-volunteer army has been expressed by Chairman F. Edward Hebert (D-La.) of the House Armed Services Committee.

One witness, Fred W. Ingraham of Showdown, a draft resisters group, roused ire among several members of the committee when he frankly admitted that he is a "no-show," an inductee who refused to appear for induction.

By raising induction refusals so high as to make the draft inoperable," Ingraham told the committee, "resistance will put an end to the draft and to the war."

Rep. Charles S. Gubser (R-Calif.) demanded to know, "What about the poor square who goes to Vietnam and gets ad? Isn't he a blot on your moral conscience?"

Ingraham, a native of Florida and a former student at the University of California at Berkeley, shot back:

"I should think he would be a blot on your moral conscience."

Although the testimony of Ingraham of Showdown and Richardson of Liberty Lobby differed on the draft and their social philosophies were at sharp variance, both told the committee the war in Asia is American aggression. Richardson said:

"We are fighting wars of aggression in foreign lands which are not in the national interest . . . the important thing to be learned is that young men raised in the American heritage have no zest for fighting wars of aggression on foreign soil."

"Therefore," he argued, "voluntary enlistments will not be great enough to feed the military machine . . . the volunteer army concept is unworkable."

The draft issue is expected to reach the floor for debate in both houses after the Easter recess in April.

This astounding testimony was given by Liberty Lobby a few weeks ago. Liberty Lobby claims to speak for the members of its Board of Policy when it offers testimony before Congress. For whom was Liberty Lobby speaking when it characterized the Vietnam war as "American aggression"?

Note particularly Liberty Lobby's statement that, "We are opposed to Moscow communism and not Vietnamese communism." This is exactly the line taken by the powerful Zionist pressure bloc in this country, which has always been "dovish" on Vietnam and "hawkish" on the Middle East. Zionists have been sympathetic toward the Viet Cong and hostile toward Moscow, because of Moscow's current Middle East position against Israel.

You don't have to take the WASHINGTON POST's word for it. The complete text of Liberty Lobby's statement will soon be available from the House Armed Services Committee.

Photographic reproduction of National Documentation Institute check to Liberty Lobby for the rental of Liberty Lobby's "pledge list" at $40.00 per thousand names as arranged for by Willis Carto on behalf of Liberty Lobby, in his letter to Richard Cotten dated October 9, 1970. Carto then sabotaged Mr. Cotten's use of the list by publicly charging that the list was "stolen."

Carto's charge that NYA "stole" his mailing list is as false as his claim that he never rents or sells his mailing lists. NYA formerly shared computer facilities with Liberty Lobby, not knowing at that time, of course, what it now knows about Carto. In return for NYA promotion of two of Carto's "fronts," AMERICAN MERCURY and the WASHINGTON OBSERVER NEWSLETTER, NYA was given the use of Carto's mailing lists in soliciting members and support for NYA.

After NYA learned a little of the nature of Carto's method of operation and severed its relation with him at the end of 1970, Carto angrily submitted bills to NYA for the use of his lists. NYA reminded him that these lists had been promised to NYA and refused to pay the exorbitant bills. Carto subsequently made his charge that the lists were "stolen" (see Exhibit E for mailing list sales invoices to NYA).

Invoices submitted by Carto to NYA for use of his mailing lists. After NYA's refusal to pay for these lists, which earlier had been promised to NYA free, Carto charged on January 26, 1971, that NYA "stole" his lists. There's a big difference between stealing something and refusing to pay an unfair bill for that thing!

Dear Pat:

Congratulations for the progress that the National Youth Alliance has made in the short time since you reorganized it. It appears to me that you have already done more in the past two months than was accomplished in the last two years.

You have a big job on your hands but I continue to believe that if NYA's Four Points are given a decent chance we can organize American youth to effectively combat the rampant culture distortion surrounding us.

NYA is desperately needed for the simple reason that there is no other youth organization even remotely able to face up to the real problems, and this of course is the essential first criterion in doing any job.

I hope that your progress in the future continues, and am sure it will if you get the support you deserve. Enclosed is Ten dollars to renew my Associate Membership for 1971.

NYA LEADS WHITE STUDENT REVOLT

HIGH SCHOOL TERROR -- N.Y.A. ACTS

On Tuesday, January 13th, a white girl was brutally attacked by three members in the halls of St. Clare's high school. The school is located in St. Clare's, California. This incident occurred during a wild rave which broke out on the streets in front of KHS after black students disrupted a meeting between white students and the school faculty.

The white students were acting to air complaints to the school board about a rally of black terrorists which had been going on in the school for the last several months. The school was forced to close down when the blacks continued their antisocial acts.

A NYA flagman immediately appeared upon the scene to organize white resistance. Plans for leafleting of area high schools and the downtown were made and implemented. Hundreds of KHS students voiced their support and gratitude for the NYA and their quick response and help against the black savages.

From Our Mail Box:

Dear Mr. Tifer:

Thank for the reorganization of the National Youth Alliance. I was one of the first members of the NYA and was disturbed with the way it had been turned into another fund raising operation. The only thing for the NYA was the NYA ever did was spend the NYA's money.

Best wishes to you in your efforts to make the NYA work.

Yours for a better NYA:

Dear Mr. Tifer:

Congratulations on your efforts with the National Youth Alliance. I have seen you several times on television and completely agree with your views that the NYA has in the depressed majority today. By the way, you got my vote last election!

Yours, Klighon

Dear Sirs:

I wrote to the American Express asking if they knew where to find information about the National Youth Alliance and they gave me this address. If you could help me in this address, I would be greatly appreciated. I am sure you are the only one who has the true what I have read a fact that it is an organization that is really needed.

Yours for Race and Nations

Dear Statecraft:

You guys are OK. Please rush me 100 copies of Statecraft. I will try and get Statecraft started in my community. Thank you.

Notes: The letter above has just been received from the founder of the NYA. We are truly thankful for his support.

Dear Sir:

I was a member of the NYA in 1969 and 1970 in New York City. Since I never got anything at all from the organization, no mailings and only got a 1970 membership for my money for the NYA. I am sure you are the only one who has the true what I have read a fact that it is an organization that is really needed.

I had a membership in the Youth for Alliance and I was attracted by the Four Point Program.

A friend of mine, also a former NYA member, told me that this is now the new address of the re-vitalized NYA.

Please rush me some information on the new NYA and how I can join it.

Yours In Struggle!

OFF CAMPUS

NYA and Statecraft-led student opposition at the North Carolina State University (NCU) campus forced Abbie Hoffman to cancel his appearance at a radical rally planned for NCU on January 11th. Throughout the day, leafleting and the shouting of slogans on campus with the assistance of communist fire centers all around the hall and class areas.

Knowledge of his appearance days in advance, a NYA team organized student opposition. On the morning of the 11th, a large banner appeared where Hoffman was to appear--"Abbie Hoffman is a Communist". Hoffman refused to appear. NYA Chairman Patrick Tifer applauded the courageous action of the NCU students for refusing to allow their campus to be the scene of leftwing radicalism.

Once again, the NYA has proved itself as the only effective organization which can bring leftwing anarchy in our schools. Interested North Carolina students should write:

A few "cartoons" from issues of "Statecraft." The cartoonist, Foster Morrison (alias Alex Devereaux), is also a libel defendant with Carto.

WILLIS ALBERT CARTO

Carto is a short, swarthy man of medium build. He shuns publicity and is camera-shy. The photograph on the left was taken several years ago. He has used the following aliases:

Bruce West

In addition, he often uses the names of various real persons on his payroll. The names Curtis Dall, Carol Dunn, and John M. Henshaw, for example, appear on Carto mailings, particularly when he wishes to describe himself as a "selfless, dedicated patriot."

He has raised money by mail through the following "fronts":

Liberty Lobby
Government Educational Foundation
Action Associates
Capitol Hill Data Processing Co.
United Congressional Appeal
American Colonization Society
Save Our Schools
Americans for National Security
National Taxation

C.E.A.S.E.

(all these have Washington, DC, addresses)

American Mercury-Washington Observer
Council on Dangerous Drugs
Legion for the Survival of Freedom

(all these have Los Angeles-area addresses)

Of these "fronts" the only one with substance is American Mercury-Washington Observer. Carto did not create American Mercury, of course. He simply managed to gain control of it.

THE SAVAGE REALITY OF McCARRANISM by Dr. Willard Upmias

While attending recently a hearing directed by the Subversive Activities Control Board against the Advance Youth Organization, we were reminded again of the savage reality of McCarranism in our country. Here, under attack, were idealistic young people never charged with espionage or illegal activity of any kind. Arrayed against their one able lawyer, Mrs. Mary Kaufman, were 3 attorneys, and a judge who, because he was appointed by the SACB, would find it difficult to render an impartial verdict. The questioning had to do solely with thoughts and with wholly legal associations.

The thoughts, it is known, bore on such burning issues as the cessation of bomb testing, the repeal of repression legislation, the resumption of diplomatic relations with Cuba—thoughts that had paralleled the views of many non-Communist persons and groups. The clear purpose of the hearings is to destroy a hated minority holding unorthodox ideas, exhaust its meagre resources and warn all other young people to stay clear of controversial questions.

The most despicable moment in the hearing came when the young stoop-pigeon on the stand, who, as a Communist Party member and FBI agent, had wormed his way to the top of Advance.... turned in a list of 72 names. Under cross questioning, it was shown that the majority of the 72 listed were not Advance members, but persons who had attended meetings or indicated an interest in questions under discussion. Young people who were exercising the right of inquiry and protest were becoming part of the FBI records, with the imputation of guilt and disloyalty.

Here we saw a government agency openly corrupting a witness in an unprincipled effort to prove a non-existent menace.

We speak of McCarranism now not simply in relation to a particular law, but as a deadly poison affecting our entire life. It rears its ugly head when integrationists strive for racial justice, peaceworkers for a world of trust and understanding, civil libertarians for free and wholesome communication. McCarranism breeds state anti-sedition laws like that in Louisiana under which segregationist officials raided the offices of the Southern Conference Educational Fund and the homes of its officers.

The CCCL calls on its supporters and friends to continue in the campaign for non-enforcement and repeal. Let us try to awaken the consciences of the indifferent and uninformed bystanders who do not realize their loss of freedom and the threat that hangs over them. Let us make them aware of the moral decay that goes with the corrupting fear-mongering of the cold war. Let each of us in all our acts and associations strive to change the climate of fear by reincarnating the historic ideals enshrined in the Bill of Rights.

The following speeches by Jim Monsonis, SNCC Staff; Mike Stein, Pres., Advance; Mark Lane, Atty and civic leader; and a message from Norman Thomas, were presented at Rally sponsored by CCCL & Advance, Oct. 31.

WESTERN STATES CONFERENCE OF YOUNG DEMOCRATIC CLUBS

Whereas the McCarran Internal Security Act changes the criteria for conviction for subversion from a person's actions to a person's thoughts; and
Whereas the Act is a bill of attainder in spirit, if not in fact and time, a violation of the constitutional powers of Congress; and

Whereas the Act provides for concentration camps in national emergency to which any American citizen can be sent by administrative order of the Federal Government, with court remedies only after extensive and expensive procedures; and

Whereas all of the above provisions of the Act are contrary to rights of Americans as provided in the Bill of Rights; Therefore, be it

RESOLVED: THAT THE WESTERN STATES CONFERENCE OF YDCA CALL FOR THE REPEAL OF THE McCARRAN INTERNAL SECURITY ACT. (Passed, August 18, 1963)

* McCARRANISM—A THREAT TO CIVIL RIGHTS by Jim Monsonis

Although the indictment of Advance has been given attention and publicity by civil libertarians throughout the nation, other political organizations and groups whose professional concern is not directly civil liberties have not done the same. I speak here representing the civil rights movement, a movement highly involved in the struggle for social change for which Advance has always fought, and wish on behalf of that movement to express our anger and protest over the hearings.

It is absolutely essential to the process of social change which this nation so much needs, that there be no official force which can say what positions and policies are out of bounds. Such a choice, of acceptance or rejection of a particular position, can only be done through public decision, not through arbitrary official decision. This freedom is essential to us in the civil rights movement, as well as all other movements for change. If the right to advocate change is not allowed, as is the case in many of the states in the South where we work, if people can be kept from considering a position because it has attached to it the label of Communist, then civil liberties are dead, regardless of what is officially proclaimed in the Constitution. Government from the top, with the range of possibility officially proscribed, has then replaced government of the people and by the people.

For a long time political groups not directly concerned with civil liberties have tended to steer clear of controversial civil liberties cases. The feeling has been that we have enough to do in our own area of work without going beyond it, no matter what our personal sympathies may be. The time has come however to end this fiction. Civil liberties is not apart from our work — it is a part of our work. And it is a part of all of our work. Just as there is no pure "civil liberties" case, for political content and political positions are involved in every civil liberties situation and affect judgments about it, in the same way all political judgments which challenge the status quo involve the right to advocate change and are thus involved with civil liberties. In Mississippi, in Georgia and Alabama, in all of the states of the south, we are not yet fighting a fight for civil rights; we are fighting for civil liberties, for the right to protest, the right to picket, the right to offer alternatives to the status quo.

Tonight is the night of witches, and we thought we would put Attorney General Robert Kennedy on the right track since after all he is witch-hunting. YOU'RE LOOKING IN THE WRONG PLACE WHEN YOU SCRUTINIZE ADVANCE YOUTH ORGANIZATION! They say that charity begins at home. Perhaps witch-hunting does too, so let's first look at some of your stool-pigeons, Bobby: One, an apparently mentally retarded individual who had to read his FBI reports 10 to 15 times in order to remember but still could not comprehend his reports on the witness stand. Witch-hunt the FBI who takes advantage of such unfortunate people! BOBBY, YOU'RE LOOKING IN THE WRONG PLACE. Two, an alleged degenerate who has been accused of taking lewd and indecent pornographic pictures of his wife for sale in the 42nd Street smut market. The Federal and Municipal Government have recently again become interested in halting the sale of lewd pictures to minors. This government witness -- a full-time paid informant -- was also charged with peddling these pictures as a lucrative side-line. BOBBY, YOU'RE LOOKING IN THE WRONG PLACE! Three, a member of Young Americans for Freedom, who fulfilled his patriotic duty by joining Advance to spy on it for the FBI. He admitted on the stand that he was against desegregation and that he was also against a Jobs-for-Youth program proposed in a National Youth Act. This youthful tribune of the ultra-Right was represented in the hearing room daily by a reporter from the Young Guard and that young and daring fearless Fosdick of the professional witch-hunters, Herbert Rommerstein. This agent of the racists and the most reactionary and conservative elements of our business and governmental community, has been delegated the responsibility of aiding and abetting the government's unconstitutional case against us. BOBBY, YOU'RE STILL LOOKING IN THE WRONG PLACE!

You had your agents out when we picketed and demonstrated with many other groups and individuals against the brutal Birmingham bombings, in which four Negro children were killed. WELL, BROTHER, YOU WERE REALLY LOOKING IN THE WRONG PLACE -- GOVERNOR WALLACE IS THE MAN'S NAME!! Your agents were swarming all over us as we picketed U.S. Steel and demanded that it assume some community responsibility in Birmingham. Now U.S. Steel's President has said that the company yields very little influence in Birmingham and can't influence the city authorities. WELL, BOBBY, SOMEONE IS LYING -- AND YOU'RE STILL LOOKING IN THE WRONG PLACE!

Advance has been accused of offering a place for youth to explore ideas and philosophies, including Marxism. We are proud of this. The crime is that schools and universities do not present full and unbiased discussions on a philosophy that is the dominant influence on 1/3 to 1/2 of the world's people. In order to guarantee the "free market-place of ideas" -- an honored tradition of academic freedom -- you, Bobby, had better begin investigating the pressure groups and narrow-minded administrators who subvert this concept.

One thing we won't do, Bobby, is witch-hunt our members, although we realize that doing so would help to clear us in your eyes. We leave the witch-hunting to you, but for Heaven's sake rip the masks off the real witches -- the Birchites, Fred Schwarz, Rev. Billy Hargis, the Eastlands, and Goldwaters. BOBBY, START LOOKING IN THE RIGHT PLACES!

As a result of this case there are many people who are hearing us for the first time. We don't ask them to agree with us. They don't have to like us but everyone who is for the Constitution and democratic rights must support us. Already many groups have taken stands, passed resolutions, written editorials and sent letters to the President and the Attorney General. We contend that there are many more things we can all do to help BOBBY LOOK IN THE RIGHT PLACES:

1. Circulate and get signatures on the petition to the Attorney General. Sign it and get others to sign.
2. Take our brochures and distribute them as widely

ROAD TO FREEDOM by Mark Lane

Shortly after I had accepted an invitation to speak here, I received a telephone call from a respected friend who advised me against appearing. He spoke in glowing terms of a future political career for me. He said that the organized sponsors, politically sophisticated as they are, would understand if I declined to speak. He said that you too would understand.

I am here not because I fear your lack of understanding but because if I did not come here to speak with you this evening I would not understand.

It is true that I may some day re-enter the political scene as a candidate. It is also true that my speaking with you tonight, among my other various past sins, will not make it easier for that re-entry to be a successful one. But my commitment is not -- has never been -- to get elected, but rather to participate in some way in the building of a free society where men and women view their fellow human beings with sympathy and concern -- where differing skin complexions, languages, political ideologies or social systems do not create fear and suspicion. I feel that in some small way my presence here tonight is my witness to that commitment.

In every land, in every time, the majority has always viewed the barriers established by man or nature as impassable. But in every land, in every time, there have been those few who see the barriers as an invitation to leap far beyond that which is accepted. To explore, to learn, to contribute, Columbus and Lenin, Jefferson and Ghandi, Christ and Pasteur, could not accept the walls fabricated by minds limited by fear. The perspective that history gives to us today, when reviewing the lives of those giants of yesterday, if brought to bear today upon the problems facing us today, would compel us to act with a greater degree of sanity.

We meet here today in a land potentially the most prosperous ever known to mankind. In a land with a tradition of freedom and liberty. A land that has given to our citizens and to the whole world a new concept of individual freedom. So long as men value the rights of their fellow human beings, just so long shall men speak with pride of our contributions to world society: the Bill of Rights, freedom of religion and freedom from it, freedom of the press, the right to a trial by a jury of one's peers, the right to travel freely -- and the source of all other rights, the right to vote in secret. But these revolutionary concepts -- the essence of Jeffersonian democracy -- have not yet become reality here. The revolution remains an item of unfinished business on the American agenda.

The right to travel -- yes, but not to Cuba. The dedication of a country's commitment to the right to travel is tested only when a citizen wants to go to the country frowned upon by the Administration. What takes place in Cuba is of concern and interest to all thinking Americans. The real crime is not that some young people traveled to Cuba recently. The real crime which may yet cost us more than a severe decrease in prestige around the world is that our government has dropped an iron curtain around that little island 90 miles from Florida. And that iron curtain, which prevents the beginnings of a normal exchange between neighbors, bears the imprint for all to see -- made in the U.S.A.

Just as serious -- and in a sense even more serious -- is the iron curtain now being dropped around those organizations and individuals who work and live in our own country. The McCarran curtain which seeks to segregate Americans into categories -- to seal off those with ideas held abhorrent by the present Administration so that those ideas cannot be discussed freely and openly in our land. A man, who I suggest will not be remembered as a defender of American liberties, said in the midst of the dark 59's of the odious McCarran Act: "Once a government is committed to the principle of silencing the voice of opposition, it has only one way to go, and that is down the path of increasingly repressive measures, until it becomes a source of terror to all its citizens and creates a country where everyone lives in fear."

Those words were delivered by the then President of the U.S.--Harry S. Truman. And now another administration, a liberal one we are told, is utilizing this very Act to harass Americans who hold unpopular ideas. The McCarran Act and similar repressive legislation cannot co-exist with the traditional theory of democracy and fair play. For the right of the minority to speak and be heard is basic in a democratic society. I for one do not believe that it is the Government's function to tell people what to do in the area of political ideology or philosophy. It is the function, I submit, of the people to tell the Government what to do and how to act in those areas. To the extent that this relationship becomes inverse-- to that extent democracy is lost and totalitarianism commences.

It has been suggested by those who have no faith in democracy, by those who do not trust the American people, that our populace may be duped by persons or organizations pretending to be non-Communist when they actually are, in secret, Communists. If there is any ~~inherent activity of the government~~ prescribed by our Constitution, this is the precise area. The people must have the right to make the political decisions. Inherent in that right is the right to make the wrong decision.

But if the Attorney General--an eager and energetic young man--feels frustrated by the confines of constitutional and legal restrictions developed over a period of about two centuries, there are areas where he might act within the sanctions of our Constitution. He might see to it that American citizens be given the right to vote in Alabama and Georgia and Mississippi. He might investigate the illegal use of the law in Americus, Georgia, where four citizens, imprisoned for months, face the possibility of a death penalty for participating in a peaceful civil rights demonstration. He might investigate the failure of the FBI to prevent the murder of children in the southern part of this country.

But if he will not act in these areas--let him not act at all. Let him not interfere with those who are working so that the American dream may yet become an American reality.

Have such groups as Advance, the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties, and the Communist Party itself, actually worked for the American reality--for an America free of racial discrimination? The old files of HUAC show that during its infancy the committee condemned the Communist Party and other groups because in the judgment of the committee they actually were engaged in activity to end racial discrimination and segregation in this land.

Let us not forget that there was a time not long ago when the organized left stood and worked almost alone for the ideas for which today tens of thousands of people all over America, in every town and village of this land have shown their willingness to face imprisonment and fire hoses and snarling dogs.

Thus it has always been. Thus it will always be. Those who stand alone, despised by the majority, persecuted by the State -- those who plunge headlong into the barriers that have been erected by little men with little vision -- those who ask not what their country can do for them but rather what they can do for their country -- those who ask that question and stand ready with the answer -- they have made a contribution to our democracy that may not be recorded, that may never be recognized and never credited, but it is a contribution which their children and all children will receive as an inheritance.

In the difficult days ahead, remember that in time the sound vision always prevails. The dream is always realized--not generally at once, but slowly, and never automatically. There is no automation in man's effort to build a freer, a happier and a better society. It is a long, slow, lonely road, burdened with obstacles, encumbered with threats and fears and doubts.

"The Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950, commonly known as the McCarran Act, is designed to, and has the effect of, imposing political persecution by discriminating against a distinct element of the citizenry whose ideas differ from those of the majority, and therefore threatens the free exchange of ideas. Democracy provides for guarantees of minority rights and the Congress has shown bad-faith intentions in violating the basic tenets of democracy by requiring a distinct political minority to register.

It is, however, and thank God for that, it is the only road we know -- and we shall walk it through the Federal Courthouse in Washington, through the prisons, the road that stretches in all directions--through the red clay of Alabama--and the fine white State house in Jackson, Mississippi -- we shall walk it wherever it leads--until the McCarran Act is but an unhappy remembrance of a by-gone era. We shall walk it until this land is free!

A PETITION TO THE PRESIDENT

NORMAN THOMAS sent, as his message to the Advance Rally, the Petition to the President signed by 68 prominent religious, labor and civil rights leaders... "who believe that our society can and must deal with domestic communism without resorting to totalitarian methods which we so strongly oppose." The McCarran and Smith Acts are "laws penalizing speech rather than action--laws which in the name of national security, have undermined the very freedoms they purport to protect. The Petition concluded with the following appeal:

To the President: To suspend future enforcement of the Internal Security Act of 1950 until the constitutionality of its several provisions is finally determined in the courts under litigation already in progress; and also to call for its Congressional repeal, for the reasons so eloquently stated in President Truman's veto message;

To the Congress: To repeal the Smith Act, the Internal Security Act and the Communist Control Act;

To Citizens Throughout the Nation: To support a return to our tradition of free expression and association; whereby the good judgment of our people, rather than the censor and the jailhouse, provides the surest protection for our national ideals.

LIBERTY NOTES

Dear Friends,

TO THOSE FASHIONING PRESIDENTIAL "IMAGE" FOR '64 I recommend the words of Henrik Ibsen, "I hold that man is right who is most closely in league with the future." The White House door opened a crack for the future when 1/2 million people came calling for Freedom...and others demanded a Test Ban Treaty... But for civil liberties the Administration persists in opening the door marked: "McCarranism, Food for The Raucous Right" ... and the Att'y Gen'l persists in sacrificing new victims to the dying Spirit of the Cold War...

FLASH. Just as we were going to press, 10 new "MEMBERSHIP" CASES were thrown on the McCarran Act Block: Ralph Wm. Taylor and Betty May Smith of Minneapolis; Michael Saunders & Daniel Queen of Chicago; Marvin Markman and Meyer Stein of N.Y.C.; Norman Halland & Benj. G. Jacobson of Portland, Ore.; Milford A. Southerland & Donald A. Hamerquist of Tacoma, and Challen Bay, Washington.

THE PASSPORT SECTION OF THE McCARRAN ACT has just been used against Mrs. Frances Druckman of San Francisco, for using passport while allegedly a member of Communist Party. THE FRAME-UP against SCEF (La. Control Act—a state McCarran Act) was thrown out, but, as in the bombings, the FBI were "the little men who weren't there" when the La. authorities slipped the SCEF records to the Eastland Internal Security Committee.

AT THE SACB HEARING ON ADVANCE, the forces of "law and order" offered a sickening example to the future of our nation: The FBI produced "art" photographer Aaron Cohen (who wasn't "sure" that 12 photos, bought on Times Sq. smut market, were his wife); The Gov't Att'y's fought to keep this "unrelated" issue out of the record; the Hearing Examiner refused to permit Att'y Mary Kaufman to examine Cohen to prove that "with his knowledge and consent his wife posed for pictures sold to the syndicate", and that "he displayed...lack of moral principle...lewd and debased...does not have any respect for truth or sanctity of an oath."

JOHN STANFORD OF TEXAS sends us examples of government paid immorality, drawn from SACB hearings in his own "membership" case...the FBI witnesses had for years turned in names of people at meetings of NAACP, SANE, a Unitarian Church Comm. and a Spanish Speaking Asso.

IN THE ALBERTSON-PROCTOR CASE (test for "membership" cases), after 13 years of litigation, an Appeals Court Judge still asks whether it wasn't premature to raise the issue of self-incrimination before they had been adjudged criminals following the final appeal. Justice Douglas answered this in his dissent (6/5/61) "the great injustice lies in compelling the officials of the Party to violate this law before their constitutional claims can be heard and determined."

SIGNS OF STORMY WEATHER AHEAD FOR McCARRANISM —The Rally, sponsored by CCCL and ADVANCE YOUTH (10/31), chaired by Dr. Uphaus, short, pithy speeches, exciting folk singers, a rousing tribute to Mary Kaufman launched a Petition Campaign to end prosecutions and repeal the Act —The Constitutional Liberties Information Center (CLIC) of L.A. issued an open letter to Calif. Congressmen at a stirring meeting Sept. 29 protesting government harassment under still unsettled sections of the Act... noting the Calif. voters' rejection of the "little" McCarran Act. —NEW: Nat'l Comm. to Repeal the McCarran Act (431 S. Dearborn St., Chic.) Prof. Alexander Mikeljohn, Hon. Chair.; Prof. Jos. Sittler, Chair.; Dr. Harold Urey, Vice-Chair.; Bishop Edgar Love, V. Chair. —70 nationally prominent clergymen paid tribute to Dr. Harry F. Ward at Carnegie Hall (10/15), and joined him in strong protest against the McCarran Act; —University Students in Minnesota, Iowa, CCNY, Columbia, NYU, a N.J. minister, an Ithaca H.S. teacher, all requested material for club and class use; —An Oregon Minister writes: "Your good work continuing as it does on such a high level of information and understanding, gives us great encouragement;" —New bulk orders from Fla., N.C., Conn., N.Y., Mich., Ind., Ala. and Montana, have put 1,000 more VOICES FOR LIBERTY into the anti-McCarran Act Campaign. Advance is being interrogated under the McCarran Act not because of the possible political associations of some of its members, but because of positions which it has taken and argued for. Much of its work has been in the area of civil rights, and we are quite familiar with Advance for its willingness to participate in demonstrations when called for, its work in initiating various protests and investigations, its attempts to keep what is happening in the South before the public. We have not always agreed with them, but we have not always agreed with anybody, and this is not a special distinction. It would be a betrayal of one of our most active friends in the New York area if we were not to register our protest against this invasion of their right to exist and work. In a very real sense the future of Advance is related to and involved with the future of all our work. If the civil rights movement can succeed in creating a democratic society where, at all levels, people have a share in the decisions which affect their lives, such investigations will no longer be able to be dictated from on high. And unless Advance is free to organize and speak, none of us is free from the threat of investigation of what we are doing and trying to achieve for American Society.

We are gathered here to register our public protest, and we must protest, not in the cause of some abstract concept of absolute civil liberties, but because what is happening here in this case is a fundamental threat to what we in the civil rights movement, and in all other political movements, seek to do. To do otherwise is to betray our own cause.

LIBERTY LETTER

918 EAST CAPITOL STREET
WASHINGTON 2, D. C.

HOW MUCH SHOULD KENNEDY BUDGET BE CUT? Conservative Coalition Can Chop Off $3.3 Billion Foreign Aid Waste

Veteran Senator Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) has been aptly described as the financial genius of the Senate. On March 29 he released a study of the budget and foreign aid which revealed that Kennedy's demand for $107.9 billion in new money for his enormously inflated budget is in addition to unspent balances now on hand of $87.2 billion!

Like the fateful end of the "unsinkable" Titanic, the United States is rapidly sinking in a cold and black sea of insolvency.

AT THIS TIME THE DIRECT INDEBTEDNESS OF THE U.S. IS ABOUT $303 BILLION. MORE THAN ONE-THIRD OF THAT IS THE RESULT OF FOREIGN AID.

A painstaking study of the budget has convinced Senator Byrd that foreign aid should be cut AT LEAST $3.3 billion. LIBERTY LOBBY firmly supports his position. And if the North-South, Republican-Democrat Coalition of conservatives also support Byrd, America will claim a great victory this year.

The mood of America is overwhelmingly conservative and anti-communist. Hence, the New Frontier manipulators are scared--but smart. They must rely on all sorts of tricks to keep up the momentum of socialism inside America, and to protect and expand communism overseas.

One clever strategem was the Clay Report which warmly praised foreign aid but recommended some economies here and there. This mendacious report is meant to be only a temporary sop to the critics. By making a tiny concession, the manipulators hope to keep the program intact for vast expansion in the future--as per the plot laid down by Kennedy speechwriter Joseph Kraft in his book, The Grand Design. As a highly successful Russian politician once put it, "Often it is desirable to take a small step backwards to take two steps forward."

ALL THINKING AND LOYAL AMERICANS MUST UNITE AND TAKE IMMEDIATE ACTION. FOR ABOUT THIRTY DAYS THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE WILL BE HEARING TESTIMONY ON THE FOREIGN AID BILL.

Please write or wire Chairman Thomas Morgan (D-Pa) and all committee members to cut foreign aid by at least $3.3 billion. (See LIBERTY LOBBY's Congressional Handbook, 25c, for list of members.)

LIBERTY LOBBY, of course, will present testimony before the committee. Your patriotic group should send a representative to Washington to do the same. LIBERTY LOBBY will secure your time and date and hotel reservations, and even assist in preparing testimony. If this is not possible, send LIBERTY LOBBY an official statement of the position of your organization, and it will be personally presented to the Committee for inclusion in the Official Record.

If the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House is immediately hit with a steady barrage of outraged citizens and taxpayers who, in no un mistakeable terms, make it known that we have had ENOUGH, it will cooperate. A great victory for America is in sight if citizens only realize that.

THE BURLESON-CURTIS RESOLUTION
By Senator Karl Mundt

ord of Kremlin policies is one of broken promises and outright lies.

This concern has now been officially expressed in the Senate in the form of a resolution introduced by Senator Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska in which I along with 18 other Senators of both political parties have joined as co-sponsors. The measure is Senate Concurrent Resolution 21. The other co-sponsors are: Senators Beall of Md., Bennett of Utah, Dominick of Colo., Fong of Hawaii, Goldwater of Ariz., Hruska of Neb., Jordan of Idaho, Lausche of Ohio, McClellan of Ark., Mechem of N.M., Metcalf of Mont., Randolph of W.Va., Robertson of Va., Scott of Penn., Simpson of Wyo., Thurmond of S.C., Tower of Texas, and Young of N.D.

The resolution sets forth what Senator Curtis terms "a bare minimum of Congressional guidance to our negotiators meeting with the Soviets."

During the past several months, a number of decisions have been made by the administration which raise doubts concerning what position our government may take on disarmament. For example, in nuclear test ban talks, our position has been considerably diluted with respect to the number of on-site inspections demanded. In mid-1961 we dropped the number from 20 to 12 on-site inspections. Last December we dropped the number to eight. Latest reports indicate we are prepared to accept a still lower number of annual on-site inspections.

In our defense establishment, we are to dismantle missile bases in Turkey and Italy. We have announced plans to remove 40,000 troops from Europe. Manned bombers are earmarked as "out of the picture" concerning future defense needs. Sound reasoning appears to be advanced for these defense moves; yet, it would seem, such actions surely are involved in the disarmament picture.

Also, raising a serious question, as Senator Curtis pointed out, are the recent developments of Secretary of Defense McNamara expressing the belief that we can deal more realistically with the Soviet Union if that nation were soon to develop an invulnerable second-strike missile force, followed by an acceptance of this position by the State Department as outlined in a speech by an arms control advisor.

International disarmament is, of course, a goal to which all Americans aspire, for it would provide, for the first time, an opportunity for nations to devote their resources --human and economic--to the well-being of mankind instead of to instruments of destruction. However, the goal cannot be attained by wishful thinking nor by the acceptance of "good intentions" on the part of the U.S.S.R. And it is for this reason that major concern is shown in the Senate--through the Curtis resolution--as to where we may be heading on this question of life-and-death importance.

KENNEDY DOES ABOUT-FACE AFTER LIBERTY LOBBY DRIVE

Supporters of LIBERTY LOBBY can rejoice that their efforts in fighting expansion of the US Arms Control and Disarmament Agency met success in the Senate. As a result of the thousands of letters alerting the Senators of conservative opposition to S.777 as proposed by Senator Humphrey, both Committee and Floor action resulted in amendments being adopted.

At the same time, as a result of an amendment introduced by Senator Frank J. Lausche (D-O), the President was instructed to follow constitutional law and submit any disarmament treaty to the Senate. This amendment nullified Section 33 of P.L. 87-297, the Disarmament Act, which did not require Senate consent but merely "further affirmative legislation by Congress." The Lausche Amendment as adopted by the Senate, in effect installs as law one-third of the Burleson-Curtis Resolution.

After this action by the Senate Kennedy was compelled to reverse the Administration's attitude towards the treaty-approving powers of the Senate. Up to this point the Administration had for months practically ignored or had only paid superficial "lip service" to Senate foreign policy leaders.

With the adoption of this Amendment the State Department and Administration leaders started wooing the leaders of foreign policy in the Senate. Many believe that Kennedy would not have felt it necessary to refer the nuclear ban treaty to the Senate if the Senate had not knocked out the vague proviso of "affirmative legislation by the Congress." This could have eliminated the Senate's power as conferred by the Constitution.

One month after the Lausche Amendment was adopted, a friendly mid-west reporter asked Mr. Kennedy point-blank if he intended to submit the proposed nuclear ban treaty to the Senate and the President asserted that he would. The question was not put to Mr. Kennedy by accident, LIBERTY LOBBY can assure you.

If LIBERTY LOBBY had not taken up the fight began by AMERICANS FOR NATIONAL SECURITY, a new grass-roots organization, it is doubtful that AFNS would have been able to stir up American patriots in such numbers. However, after the resources of LIBERTY LOBBY were made available, a vast army of loyal Americans responded to the call for action and flooded the Senators with letters and wires.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF LIBERTY LOBBY

Followed by LIBERTY LOBBY's General Counsel, Board Chairman Colonel Curtis B. Dall leaves witness table after testifying before the Senate Finance Committee.

Senator John Tower (Rep-Tex) introduces CONGRESS CALLING narrator, Chuck Sullivan to Freshman Congressman Ed Foreman (Rep-Tex).

LIBERTY LOBBY research director Ken Lynn holds a briefing with his assistant, Jim Lockett.

General Counsel John W. Wood confers over policy with Congressman Albert W. Watson (Dem-SC).

Committee hearings, research problems, official functions, conferences with Senators and Congressmen and production of our radio program are all in a day's work at LIBERTY LOBBY.

Governor Ross Barnett presents LIBERTY LOBBY's Statesman of the Republic Citation to Congressman John Bell Williams (Dem-Miss).

Research Director Ken Lynn and Assistants Jim Lockett and Charles Judd leave LIBERTY LOBBY headquarters after a full day.

DALL'S TESTIMONY AROUSES LIBERALS ANGER; COURTNEY DRAWS PRAISE

Col. Curtis B. Dall, Chairman of LIBERTY LOBBY's Board of Policy, testified before the House Foreign Affairs Committee on June 7, in opposition to H.R. 5490, the foreign aid authorization bill. Mr. Dall's firm attack on the Foreign Aid bill, as being both constitutionally illegal and an unreasonable drag on our economy met violent vocal objections from some members of the committee.

The Colonel stated that our Constitution does not provide for foreign aid in any manner and that Congress has no legal power to hand over American tax money overseas to any foreign government. Dall declared it is tragic to spend more for industrial development in foreign lands and thereby increase competition for our own domestic enterprises. He pointed out that our government owes about 100 billion dollars more than all the rest of the nations of the Free World.

Dall's position that frantic American spending merely helps the Soviet plan for world domination was attacked by several members of the committee, including the ultra-liberal Congressman Fascell of Florida. He was especially aroused when Dall declared, "if the American people realized the extent that Congress allows left-wing extremists in the Administration to disarm us at the same time that it votes foreign aid programs, they would rise up."

In conclusion, Col. Dall declared his support of the American commitment to the freedom of West Berlin without the need of any type of one-world military organizations. Again, his testimony brought sharp questioning from two liberal, Democratic members of the committee. Within an hour after this testimony the U.S. Internal Revenue Service telephoned LIBERTY LOBBY. The message: "We want to see your books." A coincidence? We think not-do you?

In a quite different atmosphere, on June 5, Ralph Courtney, member of the Board of Policy of LIBERTY LOBBY, accompanied by John Wood, General Counsel, presented testimony before a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee, in opposition to legislation seeking to extend the life of and grant additional powers to the Civil Rights Commission.

Mr. Courtney, in his presentation before the Committee, vividly pointed out the dangerous and increasing trend toward Federal centralism. He stated, "The so-called rights which this bill proposes may actually deny common rights on which this country was founded by creating special 'rights' or, better said, special privileges to be given to groups in seeking their political support."

The Chairman of the Subcommittee, Senator Sam J. Ervin, Jr., of North Carolina, highly complimented Mr. Courtney at the conclusion of his statement. Senator Ervin said, "I want to commend the excellence of your statement. It gets to the essentials of what America was intended to be." He further commented, "This legislation does nothing more or less than this: It picks out certain peoples of America solely upon the basis of their race and undertakes to give them special privileges which had never been sought by, or granted to, any other groups of Americans in our history."

S. 1680: NEW ATTEMPT TO SET UP URBAN AFFAIRS DEPARTMENT?

Politics as it is played here on the banks of the Potomac is not unlike the great American game of football, and the Kennedy boys are past-masters of both. As in football--so in politics--when you can't make a great grandstand play, you sometimes try to sneak the ball over the line. This may well be the purpose behind the bill introduced by twenty-two liberal Democrats (and Republican Senator Javits) to establish an "Office of Consumers" in the Federal government. The grandstand play that failed was last year's effort to establish a Department of Urban Affairs. The one thing that probably doomed the Urban Affairs Bill was the premature announcement by President Kennedy that he would appoint a Negro, Housing and Home Finance Administrator Robert C. Weaver, to head the new department. The Administration is making no such mistake this time and all patriots should keep a close eye on S. 1680.

Senator Kefauver--the author of the Consumer Bill--had all kinds of promises to make when he introduced the bill on the floor of the Senate, but the unvarnished truth is that the Bill is just another step toward total socialization. This alone would be enough to cause us to make every effort to defeat this legislation, but the dire possibility that the Administration may use S. 1680 as the wedge to sneak Urban Affairs "over the line" puts it in the class of "must defeat" legislation. The bill was referred to the Committee on Government Operations headed by Senator John L. McClellan. Be sure to write Senator McClellan or members of this committee from your state and protest this sneak play.

Dear Friend:

Why should we be forced to acquiesce in the actions of an Administration which will send troops to Mississippi and FBI men to spy on steel producers but will allow a dirty, bearded communist bandit to spit at us only 90 miles from our soil? And will openly foment and advocate left-wing revolution in South America but will recoil with horror at the thought of self-determination for the enslaved peoples of eastern Europe; and will, in fact, even send YOUR ~~TAX MONEY to the Communist governments of Poland and Yugoslavia~~ even when it is clearly against the law to do so!

The rocking-chair approach to the great issues of the day, such as Cuba, military preparedness, waste, the gold drain, tax reduction, world communist-expansion and spineless subservience to minority pressure groups, is ruining America.

What can patriotic Americans do to stop such outrages? There is MUCH that can be done! Are YOU willing to help?

THIS IS NOT AN APPEAL FOR MONEY. IT IS AN APPEAL FOR YOUR ACTIVE AND CONSTRUCTIVE INTEREST IN NATIONAL POLITICS AND GOOD GOVERNMENT. ARE YOU WILLING TO INTEREST YOURSELF IN YOUR COUNTRY, EVEN IF IT TAKES SOME TIME AWAY FROM GOLF OR BRIDGE? ARE YOU, IN OTHER WORDS, WILLING TO COOPERATE WITH THOUSANDS OF OTHERS IN USING, FROM TIME-TO-TIME, YOUR PERSONAL INFLUENCE WITH YOUR ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES IN WASHINGTON?

Enclosed is a sample copy of LIBERTY LETTER. If you wish to help stop America's continuing slide downward, then return the coupon. You will immediately start receiving legislative information, telling you in clear, specific language exactly what you can DO to make your weight felt most effectively for good government. You don't have to join anything.

LIBERTY LOBBY IS A PATRIOTIC, NON-PROFIT, POLITICAL-ACTION GROUP which is supported by many prominent Americans. It is constantly gaining in effectiveness and needs your moral support. Please return the coupon with your name and address--and the names of your friends and neighbors who belong with you. The cost? Only ONE dollar!

LIBERTY LOWDOWN

A CONFIDENTIAL WASHINGTON REPORT SUPPLIED ONLY TO LIBERTY LOBBY PLEDGERS

INCIDENT PLAYS COUNTERPOINT TO DESTINY

December, 1963
Number 10

Until additional facts and the unfoldment of time reveals more we must assume that John F. Kennedy was murdered for the most plausible reason; the only one that fits the known facts best. It is highly unlikely that a communist would kill the late President because of hatred for him, for in the name of History we must state that few men have done more for world communism and for the communization of America than he. John Kennedy must have been killed because his death would have resulted in the most fearsome purge of anti-communists seen since the Bolshevik Revolution. As to this result there can be no doubt whatsoever, for even today--a week after the deed--the leftists are still screeching against "hate" which, in the peculiar lexicon of the breed, means patriots and never other marxists. And the murderer himself--having failed to escape--was killed to make sure that this secret would never leave his lips. The ounce of flying lead which met its target in Dallas instantaneously transformed the entire political situation in America and weighs heavily on affairs of the entire world.

LYNDON JOHNSON differs in no degree from his predecessor in political philosophy, which is to say that he has none. As his predecessor, he is a political artist and will do at all times what he deems it politically expedient to do. It is no exaggeration to say that Johnson is a political craftsman and that his talents in this field are probably far superior to those of the man he replaces.

The similarities between the two men, however, must be weighed alongside their very different background and backers. The men surrounding Kennedy were in truth the very worst influences in America. His Administration was dominated by intellectuals of the extreme left. It was made up of labor bosses, minority bosses, the worst of the international financiers and had only the Irish Catholics as a leavening influence.

~~Johnson is from an entirely different school, although he has made very~~ strong efforts to ingratiate himself with the extreme Left. But his power has been built on Texas oil millionaires, cotton growers, party politicians of the South, and pragmatic Democrats from all over who see in him the only way to hold together the traditional victorious alliance of the extreme Left with the South.

Johnson, for example, would not have tried to force the bloated foreign aid bill through Congress this year, as did Kennedy. Kennedy isolated himself from political reality by surrounding himself with hordes of harebrained leftist schemers who were determined to use his Administration in their service. Johnson knows how the voters feel about foreign aid, and he can be expected to reject the utopian arguments advanced by the Schlesingers and Rostows and Krafts and instead spend the money on something like space projects. For he is indeed a spender; one who instinctively knows as do almost all Democrats that a big budget means power, regardless of economic consequences to the Nation.

Johnson's past history is not reassuring. Coming to Congress virtually a pauper, he is now a millionaire. His first election to the Senate was unquestionably stolen by fraudulent votes and is a classic example of his determination to win regardless of the price. He is neck deep in the Billy Sol Estes scandal, the TFX steal, and the Bobby Baker case. With these as their weapons it is possible that the extreme leftists will try harrassing and intimidating patriots. He consequently has an interesting decision to make. Political advancement means that he must maintain his anti-anti-communist policy. But to avenge the death of his brother he must do the opposite. Will he turn against communism or remain oblivious to it, profitably in bed with the spiritual assassins of his brother? Bobby has the makings of a real fanatic; should he go anti-communist the results could be highly unusual.

BARRY GOLDWATER will probably suffer politically as the cause he represents becomes stronger. His strength is partisan, and is largely due to anti-Kennedy feeling, both North and South. As Johnson makes great efforts to retain the South for his party this, in turn, will drive the Democrat liberals and minorities in the North angrily into a bargaining position, a sure set-up for NELSON ROCKEFELLER, who will certainly bid strongly for them, and even RICHARD NIXON, whose dark horse lightens.

INTERNATIONALLY, it is doubtful if the change in leadership means much. Some of the more obvious stupidities of the Kennedy era will be eliminated; for example, the anti-communist revolts in Honduras and the Dominican Republic will probably be recognized. There will be a more realistic and pragmatic approach to international problems but our cowering subservience to the Soviet may not change much because of the growing power of the Soviet Union, thanks to American "mistakes." America is, in fact, becoming in effect a Soviet satellite and only strong anti-communist leadership can save us--a type of leadership utterly alien to Lyndon Johnson. A great deal of anti-Soviet grandstanding may appear, but basic corrections of our underlying weaknesses are not to be expected.

PATRIOTS therefore will find both good and bad in the change. It is good that the worst political elements in the country will lose in power, but it is bad that they will retain any at all. It is good that the speed of our decline will be slowed, but bad that it will not be stopped.

At this time a rare opportunity presents itself to sincere Americans. For the crime in Dallas has made communist bestiality and depravity vivid to all Americans--millions of whom have heretofore scoffed at it. LIBERTY LOBBY has, in fact, sent wires to both the Attorney General and to the Director of the FBI demanding vigorous anti-communist action be instituted immediately, and that harrassment of patriots stop. All patriotic groups should follow this example.

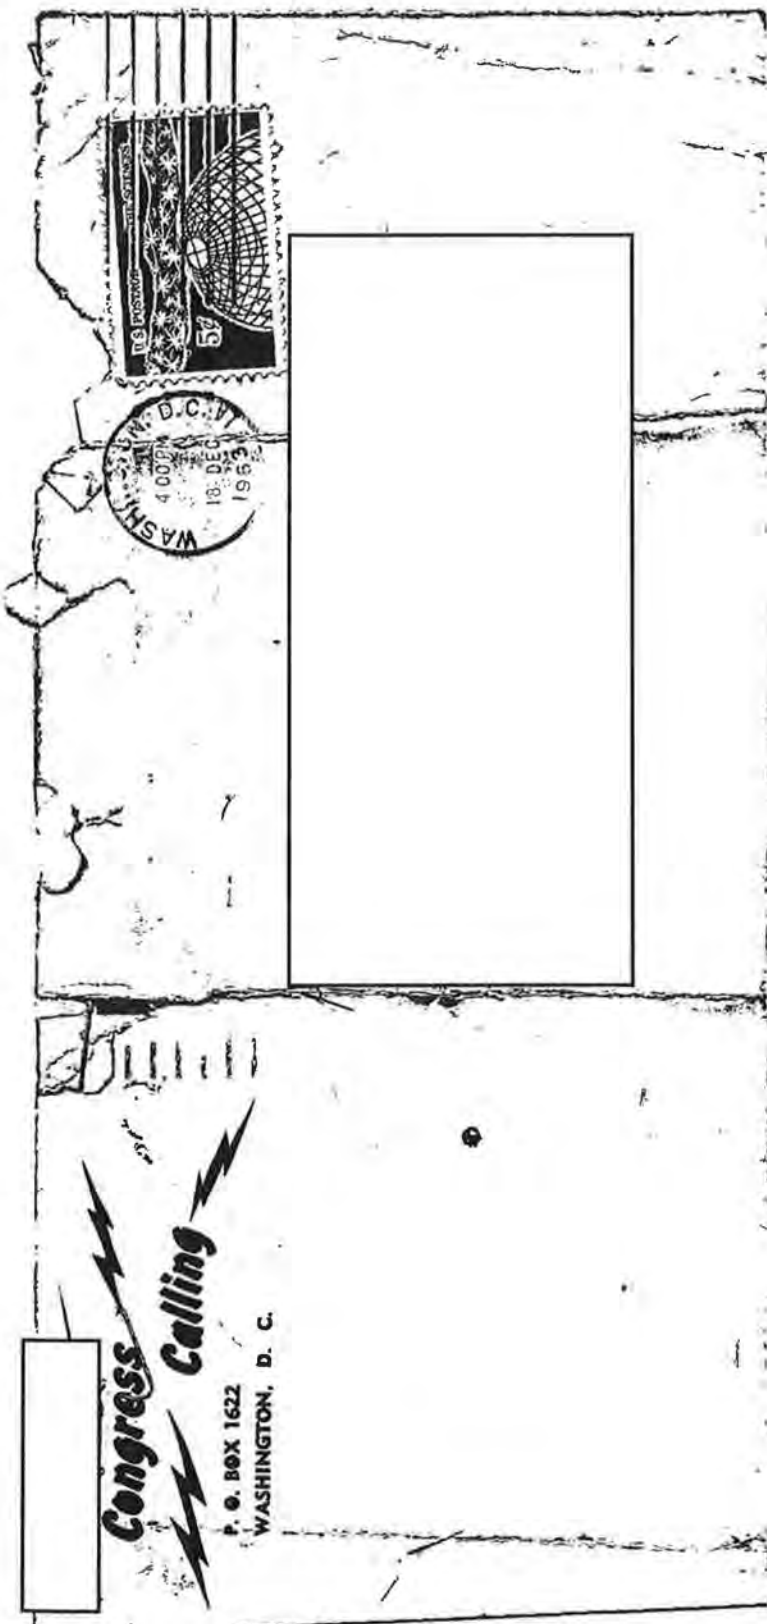

Without doubt the most negative aspect of developments is the danger posed now to the realignment of parties which was well under way. With JFK as a political symbol, the two parties were rapidly becoming meaningful, with conservatives going to the GOP and liberals and "minorities" to the Democrats. President Johnson must at all costs stop this historic process if he is to win in 1964. He is the perfect man to do it, if anyone can. To win he must perpetuate the ideological confusion within both parties, keeping them both inherently divided and thus both in the control of Wall Street.

No doubt the greatest boon for patriots is psychological. It has been proven that nothing is, in fact, "inevitable," just as many were thinking that the battle was hopelessly lost. In its inscrutable way, Destiny has taken control back into its hands. As Francis Parker Yockey points out in his book, Imperium, "in History it is the unexpected which happens. The imponderables make their appearance. Incident plays counterpoint to Destiny." The everlasting truth of that has again been proven,

1 pamphlet entitled
"Unify with the Liberty Lobby"

UNIFY WITH THE LIBERTY LOBBY

By TAYLOR CALDWELL

I once saw a dear Sister demonstrate to her class the power of unity. She took a piece of strong rope, and asked the strongest boys in her class to try to break it. Each one tried—and failed. Then she unwound the rope into all its weak filaments, and showed how each could be snapped easily by an infant. "Wound together," she said, "the rope cannot be broken. Alone, each strand can be torn without effort."

And that brings me to all the patriotic Right organizations in this country. I belong to, and support, practically all of them, for I am now desperately worried about my country's freedom and future. Of necessity, the amount I send each is small, for there are so many of them. They come and go, these fine and struggling organizations, because they do not have enough financial backing, or enough power alone. And that is exactly what the Liberal/Communist Establishment wants! We are playing into its hands. As Benjamin Franklin said so eloquently, "We must hang together, or hang separately."

The situation in America is now so dire that it is no longer a question IF the Right groups should get together. It is the most pressing of all necessities. We have all seen "conservative" Senators pushed into supporting legislation ruinous for America, because they have been impressed by the single-striking might of the "liberal" enemy, and they have become reluctantly convinced that this enemy speaks for the majority of the American people, whereas it speaks only for a vicious and treacherous minority whose one aim is to Communize our country. Not for the Liberal/Communists hundreds of little, struggling groups! They, too, have their ideological differences, with different emphases. But they understand, with the wisdom of the serpent, that they must put aside their small regional prejudices and ideas and local aims, and get together on the main plan—the destruction of our Constitution and the death of our country. And—make no mistake about it, they mean not only slavery for the people but actual physical death for those individuals who oppose it. Somehow, the thought of a ride in a tumbrel towards the scaffold doesn't appeal to me! Yet, that will be the fate of most of us, or exile into an Alaskan Siberia. Unless we unify.

We should have a central office, whether that office is in New York, San Francisco or Washington. There our money, now scattered feebly among many organizations, will become a single huge fund for printing and distribution of information nationally, to counteract the lies of the liberal press and its agents. This fund could support a Liberty Lobby, whose members would be calling constantly on Senators and Representatives, and impressing them with the fact that the country is conservative, not Liberal/Communitistic, and urging their support of bills for the benefit of America. There, in that central office, the various candidates and their records could be studied by an alert group, before endorsement in their own communities. I am sure that few Congressmen are traitors; they are merely misinformed about the real temper of our people, and their desires, and the misinformation is given to them by the Liberal/Communist enemy.

Such a central office, adequately staffed by an adequate fund, would have its Liberty Lobby to which conservatives of both major political parties would have access, and to which they could report dangerous pending bills in their communities and ask for help. Such an office, and such a Lobby, would become a formidable power in behalf of America and our Constitution. Congressmen would be compelled to listen—as they now listen to the enemy. Moreover, and most important, it could decide Presidential elections. It would impress the press, also.

It is true that all conservatives are individualistic—for conservatives are mighty individualists. I, myself, belong to patriotic organizations whose minor aims are not mine, though their major aims are so truly mine. Let us take a lesson from the enemy. He ranges all the way from the brightest Communist scarlet to the palest pink, and there are secret little quarrels with his colleagues. But when the main idea is presented—the end of our American way of life—the scarlets and the pinks get together and “hush their mouths.”

Together we stand; divided we fall. We hang together, or hang separately. Together, we can save our country. Divided, we shall lose it. Time is running out. The time is NOW!

A Liberty Lobby

On many occasions persons we know who are concerned over the trend toward socialism in this country, have expressed regret over the great number of organizations and movements set into motion to offset the trend.

On more than one occasion these persons express themselves as follows: "We've got to find a way to get all these outfits together. With so many divergent groups in action, it is very difficult to raise money for any of them. Consequently, none of them is properly financed and not a one of them is as effective as it could be if it were properly financed."

There are actually several organizations whose immediate purpose is to bring about such a merger.

The editorial pages of the Freedom Newspapers are most definitely arrayed in this battle to preserve freedom and to oppose the advance into socialism and barbarism. Hence, as we consider this point of view which is recurring with some frequency, it behooves us to ask ourselves this question: "If the entire right wing, so-called, sought to limit itself to a single exponent, and if it should be that this right wing elected the editorial pages we author as that single exponent, would we be content?" The answer to the question is a resounding "No."

We are incontrovertibly opposed to any limitation of divergent effort even though it might appear that we could profit by such limitation. In conscience we could not sustain the view, even with ourselves selected. The freedom philosophy advances, not because of its unification, but because of its diversity.

Human beings have vast differences. The approach we take may be of great assistance to some. To others it may prove to be unacceptable. Yet the efforts of others and their media will manifestly have more effect in some quarters than our own efforts, however skillfully they are conducted.

Freedom, in essence, is an individual affair. Some who understand it, will elect to support the freedom philosophy in one particular way; others will elect an entirely different approach. Our understanding of freedom grows because of the competition which is already in existence for good ideas. If we rule out such competition, even with the end in mind of making ourselves more effective, the result would be to make all of us less effective.

These thoughts have occurred particularly as we ran across a new organization being spearheaded by a group of dedicated patriots in San Francisco. The new organization is called "Liberty Lobby." Its open purpose is to establish a political pressure point where freedom ideas can be articulated to our representatives in Congress. There are many existing organizations which have such a function as their main purpose. Now comes one which intends to concentrate exclusively in this area.

Philosophically, we could question the efficacy of this approach, which in the end depends upon pressure and the molding of men's minds, and hence their actions, by means of lobbying. We support the individual approach and contend that individuals must change themselves, not because they are pressured into such change, but because they themselves wish to practice self-discipline and self-control and want the truth.

Yet, we know that there are many who could benefit by this approach which we cannot ourselves practice. And it must be true, that if the results from this newest effort bring about a diminution of socialism or communism in our government, the result is greatly to be desired.

Steadfastly we believe that no end can justify the means to that end. The means must be ideal if the result is to be ideal.

Yet there is something appealing about a Liberty Lobby as such. The effort is outspoken. It proclaims in an open manner that it will endeavor to convince our representatives by means of lobbying, to take a course of action which, if taken, would be of help to all of us. From such an effort, a diminution of taxes, controls, regulations and excessive laws, might well proceed.

If we believed that all persons who are dedicated to freedom had to be compelled to our own viewpoint, we could not countenance this organization. Instead, we hail it. Not because we think it is perfect, or even pure from a true libertarian position, but rather because it represents a way of working for freedom by men who otherwise might not find a modus operandi suitable to their own conclusions.

Good luck to the Liberty Lobby! And may our diversified efforts toward the same ultimate goal bring quick relief from the excesses of a government gone nearly total.

Movement Organized To Create 'Liberty Lobby' In Washington, D. C.

Has the key to the greater effectiveness of the conservative-patriotic movement been found at last? There is a new group being organized which believes it may have found that key. Called "Liberty Lobby", it has just issued descriptive literature describing its aims.

Operating on a pre-determined time schedule, the group plans to be set up in Washington, D. C., by July 4, 1958, whereupon it will enter into competition with the dozens of well-heeled left-wing lobbies which have been lobbying for special benefit for many years with such phenomenal success.

Pointing out that there are, all told, some 1500 lobbies in Washington, which spend "at least one hundred million dollars each year", the Liberty Lobby blames the spectacular success of the international socialists in the last two decades on this fact. What is needed, the Liberty Lobby reasons, is a lobby which will speak for the best interests of the American as an American. Instead of as a member of any particular small, selfish special-interest group. In addition, a Washington lobby is needed to consistently speak up for the national interests of the Nation.

The Liberty Lobby, in addition to serving as a contact for patriots with their Washington representatives, will also set up a Research Department and will operate a news service and perform other special services for patriots and conservative groups.

A cooperative venture, the Liberty Lobby will be governed by a Board of Policy on which will sit representatives from a dozen or more of the largest and best-established patriotic groups. For

Attributing the advance of one-worldism to Washington lobbies operating in its behalf, a group of conservatives has developed plans for a countervailing lobby. Inquiries about the "Liberty Lobby" should be directed P. O. Box 5311

IDEAS

SPECIAL GUEST ARTICLE

Willis A. Carto's past responsibilities include being Executive Director of LIBERTY & PROPERTY, Inc., a Regional Vice President of WE, THE PEOPLE and Secretary for the CONGRESS OF FREEDOM. During the San Francisco Republican Convention he set up and directed the CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICAN HEAD-QUARTERS, which was visited by many hundreds of delegates and visitors. He is also the originator of the First National DIRECTORY of "Rightist" Groups, which is going into its Third Edition at this time.

He is now Corresponding Secretary for the LIBERTY LOBBY, a new concept which is attracting attention of patriots from coast to coast. It is scheduled to open in Washington July 4, 1958, or before if its budget is met earlier.

A LIBERTY LOBBY IS NEEDED

By WILLIS A. CARTO
(P.O. Box 5311, San Francisco 1, Calif.)

Washington, D. C. is an occupied city. It has been captured by an aggressive coalition of minority special interest pressure groups. The federal government is the obedient servant of its captors, which band together as the occasion demands to manipulate government force in order to pry from the majority of Americans special privilege and power.

There are economic, religious, racial and foreign pressure groups set up in Washington, all of them extremely well-organized and well-financed. Although not all of these minority special interest pressure groups are consistently inimical to American interests, in principle the system is bad. The entire system needs to be thrown out and a truly libertarian system re-established which will be in the interests of all the people, not just some.

The Augean Stables need to be cleaned. A Second American Revolution is needed. But this presents many problems, the main one being simply that our side is not yet nearly strong enough nor well-organized enough.

In the meantime, how can we cope with these grasping pressure groups? We must compete with them. We must compete with them on their own terms until such time as the entire pressure group system can be eliminated and government re-established in consistency with American traditions.

Such a strategy requires the establishment of a beach-head on the battleground of Washington; an actual office must be set up, ready, willing and able to lock horns with the minority special interest pressure groups. Such an office must be backed up by thousands of voters. It will contact legislators on matters deemed vital to America by speaking for the citizen's whole and long-range interest, rather than his limited and shortsighted temporary interest. It will be a lobby for liberty and national sovereignty: a LIBERTY LOBBY!

At present there are a few offices and individuals in Washington which do good work insofar as their limited activities allow. But a much larger and truly coordinated effort is needed, one which will utilize the cooperative effort of all of our big patriotic groups. With the backing of the membership of the biggest dozen or so of groups a LIBERTY LOBBY will be in a position to speak out firmly for the right.

A LIBERTY LOBBY will complement and supplement the grass-roots work of the various new party groups and political action groups. Far from there being any conflict between the two types of operations, the LOBBY will work at the "top"—right at the seat of federal power—while the grass-roots groups will continue their essential work at the "bottom"—at the precinct and district level. Each type of operation will benefit the other. And together they will be far stronger than alone.

A LIBERTY LOBBY will also bring Northern and Southern groups together for political action. This will pave the way for the long-overdue formal coalition of conservative forces which is so desperately needed.

United, the patriotic forces in America can outstrip even the most aggressive and vocal of the minority special interest pressure groups. This is because every patriot-member of the LIBERTY LOBBY will be an active and outspoken member. Such is by no means the case with the much-feared labor lobby, or teachers' lobby, or the racial lobbies. Most individual members of these lobbies are themselves too good Americans to want special favors and hand-outs at government expense. In spite of their bombast, the minority special interest pressure group bosses do not speak for all of their members.

Now is the time for Americans to organize together in order to accomplish what we cannot accomplish alone. Now is the time for a LIBERTY LOBBY!

ABRAHAM LINCOLN SAID:

"The people of these United States are the rightful masters of both congresses and courts, not to overthrow the Constitution, but to overthrow the men who pervert the Constitution."

If you have doubts about signing the attached petition please read the great speech of Senator William E. Jenner in the Senate on July 26, 1957 and Dan Smoot's Report of July 1, 1957, entitled "Supreme Court". These should satisfy you that the Supreme Court decisions add up to treason and that the words of the Supreme Court Justices themselves will furnish solid basis for their own impeachment.

Copies of the above can be obtained from: Senator William E. Jenner, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C. and Dan Smoot, P. O. Box 1305, Dallas, Texas.
